Our Miskodeed

Here's to the "Miskodeed"
So noble and true!
Long may it live
To benefit you.

Here's to the "Miskodeed"
We leave it to you.
Classes who follow us!
To it be true.

Published by the
GRADVATING CLASS
of the

MISHAWAKA HIGH SCHOOL
INDIANA

Dedication

TO Mr. P. C. Emmons, our Superintendent, who had a vision of a greater Mishawaka High School, who had the courage to attempt to make the vision a reality, and who succeeded nobly in the attempt, we, the Class of '25, dedicate this book. May it show our appreciation of the vision, the courage, and the ability of the man who led in the creation of this beautiful edifice.

Mr. P. C. Emmons

Foreword

EVEN as the spring flowers, the Indians' Miskodeed, faithfully heralded the passing of a year and proclaimed the approach of a new season, so our "Miskodeed" portrays the panorama of happy High School days and signals the beginning of greater duties for those bidding adieu to their school.

May you, who follow, make your "Miskodeed" a true delineation of your happy High School days.

Appreciation of the Artists

WE, the Class of 1925, wish to express our deepest appreciation for the art work contributed by Mr. Gurwit, of the Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company. Mr. Gurwit used our beautiful building as the theme of all art work throughout the book.

Welbourne Worthington and Wilbur Beehler faithfully completed Mr. Gurwit's sketches. This art work has added much to the beauty of our book and we hope it will help the reader to discover the beauty of the art work of the building.

Mr. C. C. Cauble

Our Principal

Mr. C. C. Cauble, by his untiring patience, his intelligent management, and his exceptional sportsmanship, has won the friendship and admiration of the student body and the faculty.

During the last three years, he has organized the Board of Control which has proved an efficient body to look after all the school activities. He has also introduced and perfected the Demerit System and has placed the Mishawaka High School in a class with the best regulated schools of the state.

M. H. Tupper

Board of Education

IT is through the efforts of the Board of Education and Mr. P. C. Emmons that we are able to have this new school building in which we can now pursue higher ideals.

We wish to express the appreciation of the entire school and community for the efforts put forth by Mr. A. H. Ahara, Mr. W. H. Tupper, and Mr. E. B. Byrkit. They are true "Mishawaka Men"—who could see the need of this beautiful building and who were willing to take the risk and labor of the construction of this magnificent edifice.

Mr. Ahara has served on the Board since 1921. In 1923 he was elected president. Mr. Tupper, the secretary, has filled that position since 1923. Mr. E. B. Byrkit, treasurer, the oldest member of the Board, has been affiliated with the Board of Education since 1918.

In the last few years the problem confronting the Board of Education has been the construction and equipment of the new addition to the Battell School and our New High School, to meet the demands of the increasing population of the city.

BEEHLER.

In the Offices

"IF YOU want a thing well done, do it yourself" is a very good maxim, but the exception in our school is in the Superintendent's office, "If you want a thing well done, leave it to Miss Betts."

Miss Florence Danneil has been chosen her assistant this year. Her courtesy and disposition to help everyone have made her a valuable asset to the office and bookshop.

Mr. Cauble could not have found a more able office assistant than Margaret Denton. During her two years in the Principal's office, she has been so considerate of teachers and students that her presence seems to belong to the school.

Carolyn Immel has proved herself very efficient in the new library. She has had many difficulties to overcome in making the school library a real working library, but it is fast becoming one of which we may be proud.

Mrs. Shank has caught the real spirit of the position of Truant Officer. The presence of such a woman in the homes of these students is of great value.

English Department

THE English Course is a vast professional problem. "Life itself might be the sole teacher of youth were it not for the fact that language is the chief means of communication between mind and mind." Thus the three-fold aim of our English Course: to teach life and its lessons through the Classics, to teach the possibilities of expression, and to create a desire for the mastery of the "mother" tongue.

This department has the services of Miss Leila Heimbach, A. B. (Oberlin College), who has charge of the All-Told and a Sophomore play; Miss Tichy, A. B. (Chicago University), who was Staff Critic of the 1924 Miskodeed; Miss Lora Janette Duguid, A. B. (Indiana University), a Senior Sponsor who coached the Senior Class Play; Miss Mary Ann Scholl, A. B. (DePauw University, Wisconsin University), a Sophomore Sponsor who coached a Sophomore play; Miss Mary K. Alexander, Ph. B. (Franklin College), who was Staff Critic of the 1925 Miskodeed; and Miss Margaret C. Moist, A. B. (Indiana University), a Junior Sponsor.

Miss Wheatcraft

Mr. Broman

The History Department

TO AID the student "to see their history through their nation's eyes" is the aim of the History Department. The Discussion Clubs, The Wranglers, Current Events Clubs are the outside activities. The department is supported by F. W. Chapman, A. B., M. A. (Depauw and Indiana Universities); Miss Wilma Wheatcraft, Ph. B. (Franklin College); Roy A. Broman, A. B. (Indiana University); and Miss Mary Ann Scholl.

The Mathematics Department

In the Mathematics Department, we have the services of Mr. Lester C. Dahl, A. B., M. A. (Knox College and Northwestern University); Mr. Roy A. Broman (Indiana University), and Miss Margaret C. Moist, A. B. (Indiana University).

During the past two years, Mr. Dahl has shown his leadership as Junior and Senior Class sponsor and also as Hi-Y leader. Enthusiasm and energy have marked the work of Margaret Moist in the English and Mathematics departments. As Junior Class Sponsor she has had opportunity to develop leadership.

The Domestic Science Department

THE popular demand for practical education has been answered by those who equipped the new Domestic Science department. The best equipment that can be procurred has been installed to make this a vital part of school life. The subjects in this department are taught by Miss Ann Park, B. S. (Columbia University), and Miss Core M. Albertsen, B. S. (Bradley Polytechnic Insitute).

The Art Department

To create a love for the beautiful and to train the students in the execution of artistic designs have been the aims of this department. Miss Agnes Shoup, (Chicago Academy of Fine Arts), has made her department one of the most popular. The art work of the "Miskodeed" is done in this department.

The Science Department

No department has received any more special attention than our Science department. Miss Loraine Ulrey, A. B. (Manchester College), and Mr. Darl F. Wood, A. B. (Indiana University) are the instructors of Biology, Chemistry and Physics.

The Foreign Language Department

IN AN AGE of practical education, the department of Foreign Languages is holding its rank. To prove that Latin is not a dead language, "Mercurius," a newspaper, is published by the students of the Latin department. This paper has won the praise of school authorities in all parts of the country. Miss Zoe Wyland, Ph. B. (Chicago) and Miss Bertha I. Adams, A. B. (Indiana University, Columbia University, and Wisconsin University) are the instructors.

The French department has developed into one of the most popular departments of the school. Miss Kathryn Burns, A. B. (Indiana University) is the able instructor in this department.

Physical Training Department

"A sound body, a sound mind" is an old maxim but the truth of it was not forgotten when this course of study was planned and the gymnasium erected and equipped. Hockey, basketball, football, tennis, track, together with the regular physical training show the interest of the students in this department. Miss Carolyn Newhafer (Sargent School of Physical Education) and Frank M. Steele (School of Physical Training) have charge of this work.

Commercial Course

THE value of the Commercial Course to the entire school can hardly be estimated. The aim of the department is to train for efficiency in work and also to create a business attitude in the students. The Scribblers, as an organization, have contributed much enthusiasm and social benefit to school life.

Last year many individual prizes were awarded to the students of the Commercial department. In the Commercial contest, the students won the pennant as champions of this district. This year the district contest was held in Mishawaka for a second time.

Miss Perle Marie Parvis (Indiana University and Gregg School of Chicago) has been very successful in this department. Miss Ethel B. Finster, A. B. (Indiana State Normal) and Miss Frela Jones (Butler College and Gregg School of Chicago) came to us at the beginning of the year.

Because of the resignation of Miss Jones, Mr. A. J. Amos, B. S. (Indiana University) and Miss Myrtle Albert, A. B. (Drake University) of Des Moines, Iowa were secured to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Amos

Miss Albert

Vocational Department

THe greatest evidence that Mishawaka is in advance of the educational world is proved by an inspection of the course of study in the Vocational School and of the new shops.

The Vocational Department offers training to two classes of students: those who wish to enter engineering colleges and those who wish to learn a definite trade. Both courses are so taught in connection with the academic courses that full credit is given for graduation and entrance into college may be secured.

Plans have been made by which the student may spend one half day in a commercial shop to gain practice experience in the trade in which he has his training. For this he will be given two credits. If a Senior Trade boy does not desire to go into work or fails to find employment for half time, he may elect Cadet Teaching or Shop Foreman work in his given trade under the instructor in charge. Special academic courses are required in such cases. One credit a semester will be granted for this.

This department, which occupies the west section of the building, has about 14,000 square feet of floor space. The chief shop are those of the Printing, Machine, Wood and Pattern, Mechanical Drawing and Drafting, and the Electric and Automotive classes.

Each of these departments proves its efficiency by the actual productions. Many of these products are sold and many utilized by the school. The printing shop estimates the amount of actual printing done this year could not be secured for $3,500; the work of the machine shop totaled $1,500; the electric shop has completed $600 worth of electrical shop work; the drafting room has drawn plans for several houses and can estimate its output at $1,000; the wood and pattern shops did $800 worth of work and the automotive shop, although it is a new shop, did $900 worth of work.

Mr. Shank Mr. Weesner

Mr. Sprague

Mr. Shake

Mr. Kabel

Mr. Allen Shank is at the head of this department and tries to guide the boys into the work for which they are best fitted. Much praise is due him, for his ability has placed Mishawaka High School as one of the greatest Vocational Schools in the Middle West.

Mr. H. F. Weesner, in the print shop, has a very efficient department. He prints the "ALL-TOLD" and anything else the school needs.

Mr. Everett Sprague is a very successful teacher in the mechanical drawing and drafting department.

Mr. H. M. Kabel, in the machine shop, is able to train the boys to become skilled so that they may be part of the industrial life of the city.

Mr. S. S. Shake (Indiana State Normal), who has charge of the wood shop and Commercial Arithmetic, has furnished many artistic pieces of furniture for our building.

Mr. Wm. J. Middleton, A. B. (Purdue University) is making the automotive department one of interest and helpfulness.

Mr. D. K. Finch has charge of the electric shop and has created a very practical department.

Mishawaka

Senior History

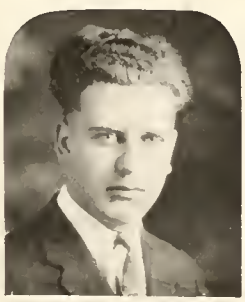
THE thirty-first day of August, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, will live in our memory forever. It was on that bright and sunny day four years ago, that we, the "class of 25" started our happy but short climb up "Mount Learning." We were very meek and quiet and were held in awe at the thought of seeing a Senior.

As Freshmen we lived up to all the expectations of "Freshies." However, we did manage in all the hubbub and excitement to elect officers, who served with real tact, and planned a Freshman Party, which was a hugh success.

It was only after "Dame Experience" had taught us many difficult lessons that we were allowed to call ourselves, Sophomores. Clarence Lindzy served us as President with the same thought and tact that Carl Long had used the previous year. To some, the Hallo'een and Patriotic Parties will stand forth as the main events of the year, but to others, the three one-act plays which were put on with such success and pep.

The third year of our climb up "Mount Learning," Leonard Fisher acted as our guide, and a good job he did. The Notre Dame Glee Club Concert was such a success that it has few equals. "Honor Bright," the Junior Class Play, was not only a financial success, but it also afforded a wonderful evening's entertainment and a startling display of talent. Of all the parties held, the "Junior Prom" was the "one in a million."

We have attained these wonderful heights. We are Seniors. We have tried to our utmost to make this last year one that would live. We are the first class to graduate from the beautiful new auditorium. But to "Madam Fate" this did not seem enough by which to remember the "Class of 25," so she added two victories to the list; the first one was the victory over South Bend in Football, and the second was the Annual District Basketball Tournament Title. To these great achievements the Seniors themselves added the bewildering success of "Thank You," the class play, and the success of this Annual.



Leonard Fisher
Class Pres. 1923-1925

Miss Wheatcraft
Head Sponsor 1923-1925

Walter Brady—"Walt"

If Walt handles his future as well as he does a football, we predict the "top ring of the ladder" for him.

"Better to be a football fan than a ballroom lizard."

Jennie Ainlay

Jennie is a genial companion with a lot of "pep" and great dramatic ability.

"You shall know her by her giggle."

Esther Anders

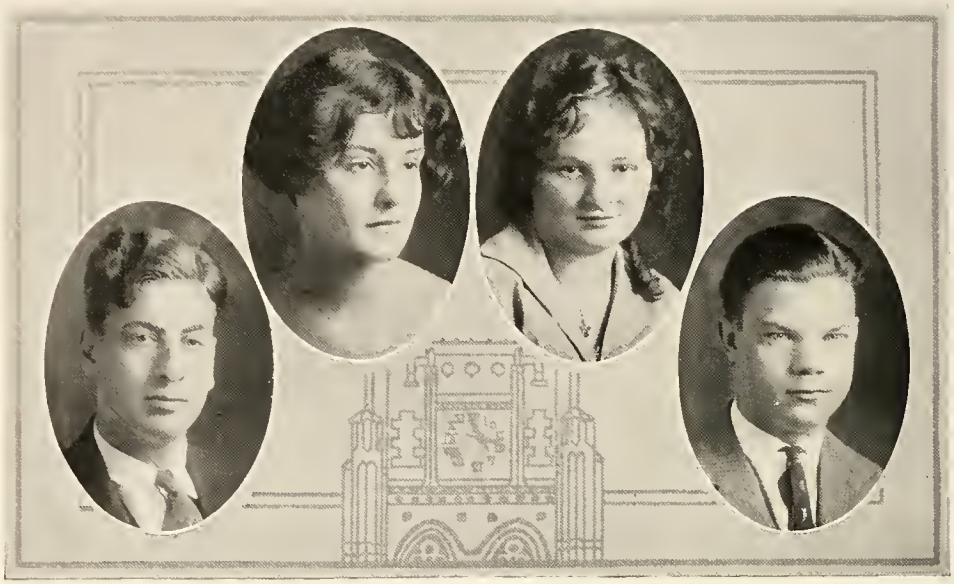
Esther surprised us by withdrawing from school. They report June wedding bells.

"In the Spring a young girl's fancy."

Carl Anglin—"Shorty"

Carl possesses a goodly store of knowledge, common sense, and a keen sense of humor.

"Do not judge me by my looks."



Melvin Baer—"Benny"

Yell Leader of "M. H. S." with plenty of "pep;"
"Benny" is always on deck when a loyal student is needed.

"We with advantage, at times, forget all we know."

Ethel Buysse—"Etel"

Ethel is a sincere member of "M. H. S." She goes about her work in a quiet way and can always be depended upon.

"Life would be dead without a certain alumnus."

Ruth Barnes

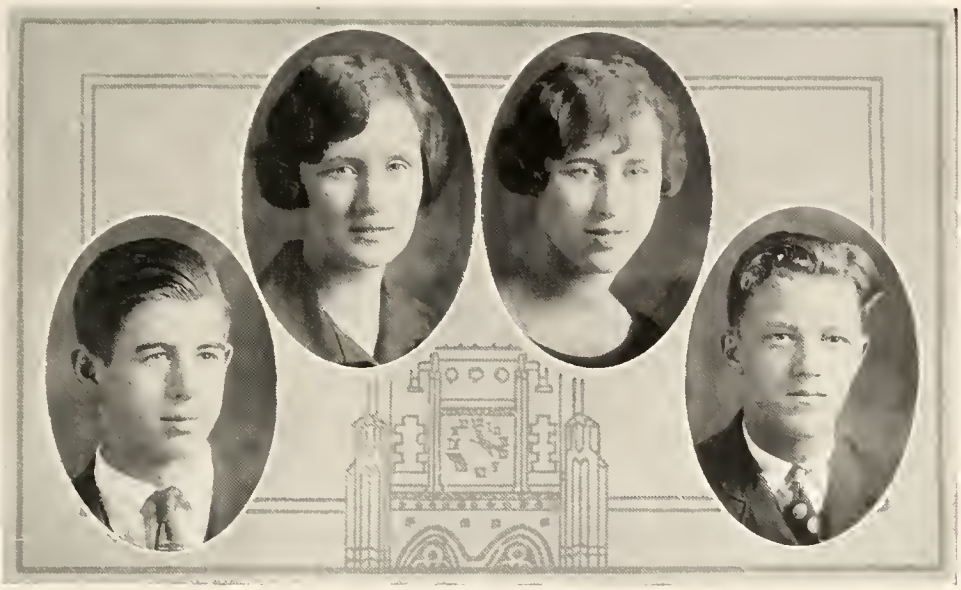
With her quiet manner and gentle ways, Ruth has gained many lasting friends.

"Silence is the herald of joy."

Dean J. Armstead—"D. J."

He works with a willingness wherever he is needed. History is "D. J's" favorite study.

"He only likes those modest maidens."



William Cocanower—"Bill"

"Bill" is a quiet and industrious member of "M. H. S." His work, whatever it may be, is always done and done well.

"By his drawl, he shall be known."

Alice Corporan—"Corpie"

Music and literature seems to be her special field.

She meets all responsibility with a cheerfulness that shows "metal within."

"A face with gladness overspread."

Bernice Blume—"Berny"

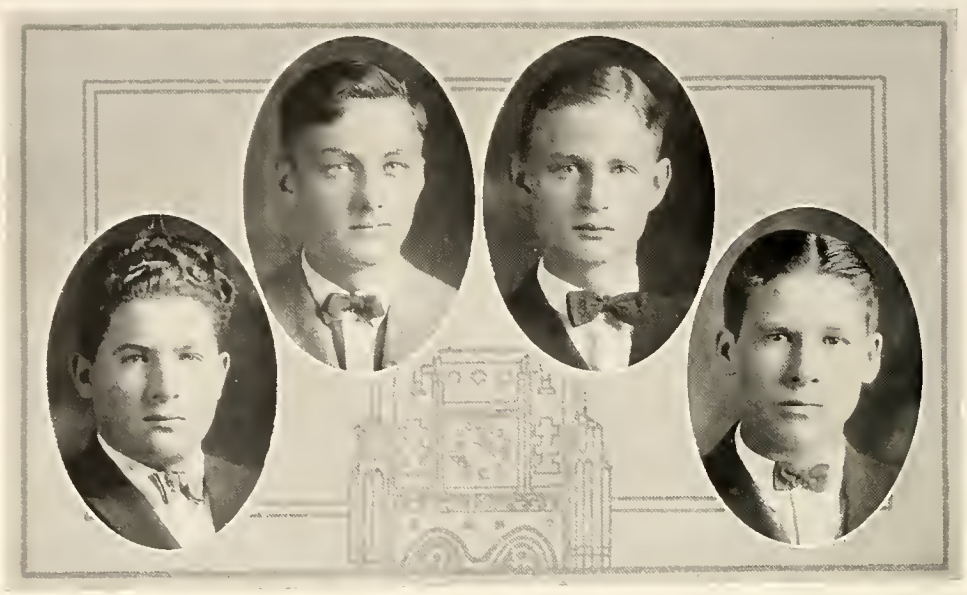
Bernice is full of pep, and up to mischief a good share of the time, but she is a good student, nevertheless.

"Eternal sunshine settled on her head."

Paul Baxter—"Baxter"

Paul is another of those who mixes work and play, but he is none the worse for it.

"I'se wicked, I'se awful wicked, but I just can't help it."



Earl Creager—"Tiny"

Earl has been a faithful student of "Mishawaka High." His good nature has won many friends in the school and we hope he never loses his ability to smile.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you, Weep and you weep alone."

Paul Jernegan—"Paulie"

"Paulie" works quietly, consequently what he does is always done well.

"Greatness can never be measured by bulk."

Dale Irwin—"Ikie"

"Ikie" possesses real dramatic ability which he displayed to effect in "Honor Bright."

"Every man at his best state is altogether mannerly."

Carl Christianson—"Christie"

"Christie" is another of our football men who is beloved by all who really know him. He is the life of a crowd of chosen friends but of quiet dignified demeanor when the occasion requires it.

"Still water runs deep."

George Clark

George is so quiet and so studious that we seldom hear from him. He has a brilliant mind, and if he uses all his knowledge, we predict a brilliant future.

"Keen sense and common sense—No room for nonsense."

Marion Campbell—"Soupie"

"Soupie" goes her own way—nearly always. Only her closest friends know what it would be to lose her from the halls of "M. H. S." Her real dramatic ability was shown in "Thank You."

"Be gone dull care! Thou and I shall never agree."

Marguerite Baugher—"Miggs"

"Miggs" is another of our modest maidens but she proved her ability as an actress in "Honor Bright."

"Thy modesty's a candle to thy merits."

J. W. Chandler—"Dub"

By working faithfully he has gained a store of knowledge of which he can well be proud.

"By the work we know the worker."

James Borst—"Jim"

Athletes know him as a backer; students know him as a co-worker.

"Happy am I, from care I'm free!
Why aren't they all content like me?"

Veoda Enyeart—"Dodie"

When Veoda is "on deck" everone knows there's good time in store. but she does not neglect her studies.

"Sweet and sincere."

Nannie Blandford—"Nan"

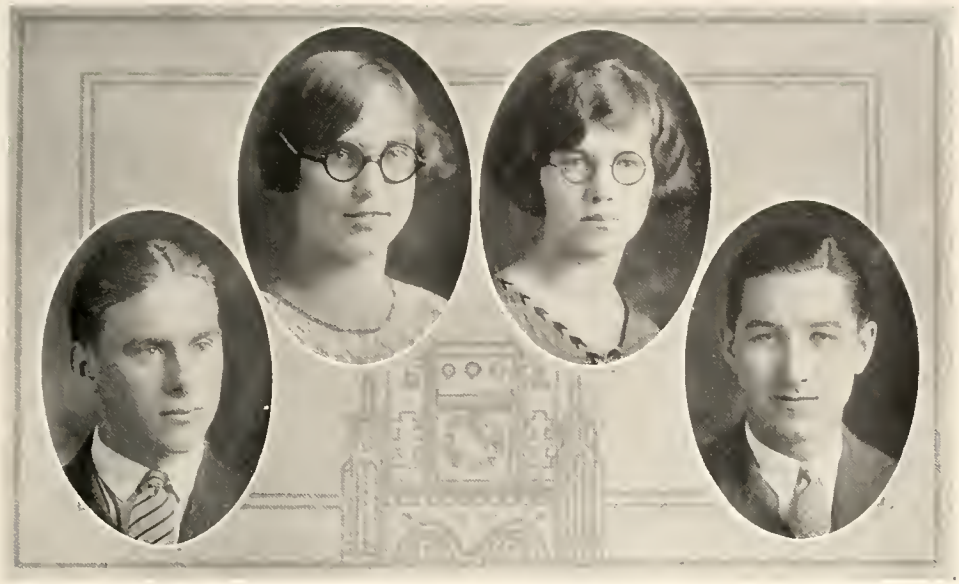
Nannie never says much but we cannot always judge one by ones silence.

"Silence is bliss."

Harry Curtis

Harry has demonstrated his dramatic ability in several minor parts but it was the Senior Class Play that gave him a real chance.

"Time ripens all things. No man is born wise."



Hearld Anthony—"Dutch"

He is a newcomer in our midst, but he has made himself known.

"—and the rest is silence."

Fern Marker—"Billy"

As a rule, Fern says very little, but once in a while, she lets us share her knowledge.

"For she's not forward
But modest as a dove."

Pauline Holderman

A quiet but active member of "M. H. S." is she. Pauline is a pianist of ability and a student of good rank.

"Bright! Why! Even Mars is but a candle."

Howard Charles—"Chuck"

Only "Chuck's" closest friends know his true worth. He is always jovial, alert and ready with a clever retort.

"The wise do not tell all they know."

Joseph Cogan—"Jo"

"Jo" possesses a rare gift—that of oratorical ability. His ability to act was proved by his fine characterization of Mr. Carton in "Honor Bright," and the Rector in "Thank You."

"All great men are dead.
I ain't feeling well."

Thelma Bufka—"Squirrel"

Thelma has not been with us long, but she has made herself known. She made her debut in the Junior Play and she is now well on her way to success.

"The pen is the tongue of the mind."

Ella Block—"El"

"El" is full of life and pep, but even so, she manages to study and get good grades.

"Better to be out of life than out of fashion."

Wilbert Beehler—"Bill"

Silent, quiet, unassuming, but brimful of ability—that's Beehler.

"The wisdom of the world
Is mine—all mine in trust."

Robert Sanders—"Bob"

"Bob" used to be quite the Sheik in our Junior year, but now he is getting more quiet. We all wonder why!

"But, lo! the modern Shiek has come."

Sara Louise Hollister—"Chiss"

With her quiet, unassuming ways, she has gained many friends and when we mention high grades—it's to "Chiss" we look.

"Love always finds a way around all difficulties."

Agnes Burggraf

She is always quiet but, nevertheless, she has made a name for herself as a shorthand writer.

"Patience is powerful."

Delbert Heidt—"Debby"

It did not take long for "Debby" to establish his name as a basket-ball player. He led the team to victory in the sectional tournament of 1925 as Captain.

"Variety is the source of pleasure."

Merritt Farrar—"Joe"

Joe can make the very halls of "M. H. S." ring. He is our silver tongued orator of whom we are so proud.

"Frank and outspoken! When he speaks, he strikes home."

Eva Gilliland

Eva is a student who is little known but one who leads in her classes.

"We are interested in others when they are interested in us."

Helen Gordon

Helen came to M. H. S. in her Senior year and soon suited herself to her surroundings.

"And she could talk,
Land; how she could talk."

Theodore Fry—"Ted"

Ted is a good natured companion who is always ready to help out in any way possible. He has a good store of knowledge which is often concealed by a modest manner.

"Modesty seldom resides in a mind
That is not enriched by nobler virtues."

Leonard Fisher—"Fisher"

Leonard has been our president for two years. Everything he has undertaken has been a success. Can he play football?-?-Well! we'll leave that to you.

"A little mischief now and then
Is relished by the best of men."

Esther Felton

Esther goes quietly about her work and is ever present where she is needed most.

"She loves only curly hair."

Georgia Baugher

Even though she did come to us from South Bend, she is liked by all because of her gentleness of manner.

"I should worry!"

Vernon Freed—"Vernie"

"Vernie" is one upon whom you can depend; he is always working for the betterment of "M. H. S." and her standards Such as he, we hate to lose.

"You can tell the kind of wheels he has in his head by the "spokes" that come out of his mouth."

Harry Cohen

Harry is a good-natured booster of "M. H. S." and he gets what he goes after.

"I'm slow of study."

Gertrude Gygi—"Gert"

In "Gert" we find a combination of fine scholarship and dramatic ability.

"Great things are often found in small parcels."

LaVaughn Deilman

LaVaughn is another of those who possess great stores of knowledge but she seldom imparts it to others.

"Let the world slide."

Dean Currier—"Sleepy"

Dean is a quiet student who seldom offers a suggestion to anyone.

"Care killed a cat."

Clarence Ullery—"Sherm"

Oh! Boy! Some football player! "Sherm," we certainly are glad you are one of the "Class of '25," and, from all reports, it seems that you are quite a bookkeeping shark, too.

"He speaks when spoken to."

Iona Enyeart—"Nonie"

"Nonie" is a student who has always worked hard for what knowledge she has gained, but in the end 'tis better so.

"Happy go lucky and free from care."

Letha Edgell—"Lee"

She possesses an enviable store of knowledge, and all who know her predict a brilliant future.

"A genial and pleasant companion."

William Doll—"Bill"

"Bill's" store of knowledge is not limited. His quietness is an asset rather than a hindrance.

"Modesty conceals his many virtues."

Howard Kenyon—"How"

It is students like "How" that make "M. H. S." the School she is today. He is a genuine student, sincere in purpose, and his stride will always be onward and upward.

"He has ambitions equal to business but still aspires higher."

Zelpha Garnes—"Swede"

"Swede" has always managed to mix work and play together. She stands forth in athletics and has been our faithful cheer leader for a year.

"Oh! How she can yell."

Ione Davis—"Shorty"

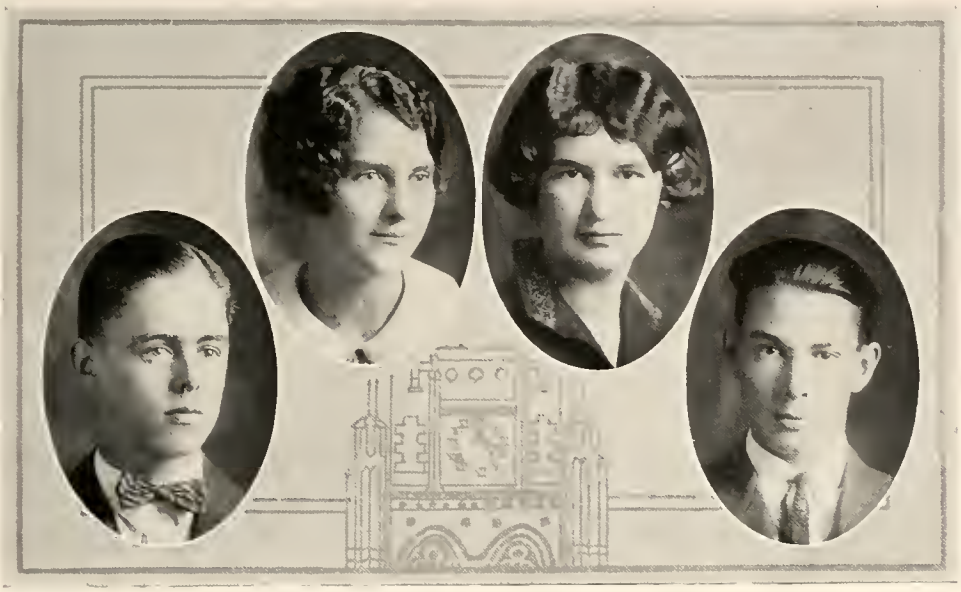
"Shorty" is a hard worker, and she backs everything " M. H. S." undertakes, but she is not one to brag of it.

"A fair exterior is a silent recommendation."

Harold Garman—"Fat"

One that goes about his work silently and with a will is bound to get ahead; that's what we predict for "Fat."

"I'm resolved to grow fat and stay young till I'm forty."



Scott Beauchamp—"Scotty"

We have all learned to know his broad grin. He is always cheerful and ready to do anything asked of him to help the school.

"I'm no shark, but I can hold the job."

Berniece Jones—"Jonesy"

Berniece is a student who has the ability and energy to enter into any activity in the school. Her dramatic ability has brought honor to the school and her class.

"We may be personally defeated but our principles never."

Louise Kelly

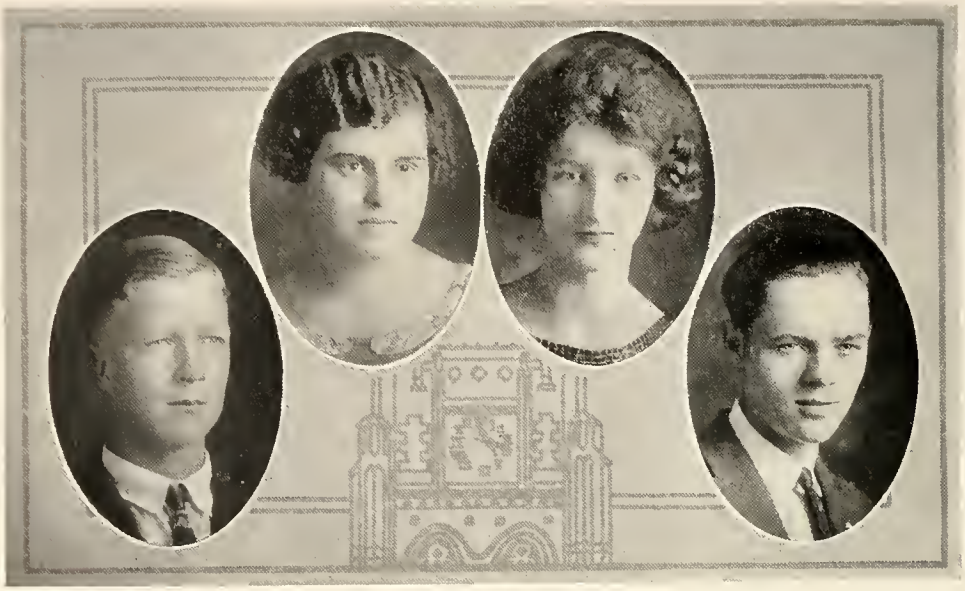
Louise is a girl whose greatness lies in her ability to be a real true friend, and to do her tasks with very little apparent effort.

"How far that little candle throws its gleam.!"

Erston Herzog—"Percy"

Erston's energy and dynamic personality can arouse any group of students, either in the assembly, class room or hard-time party.

"In fine, nothing has been said
That has not been said before."



Frank Lipke

Frank's unusual ability in his work has marked him as "one apart"—so he was chosen as "tutor" in the vocational work by the grade principal. This is an unusual honor.

"As much as any man, am I—
The wonder of the working day."

Gladys Metzger

Gladys is a student of unusual ability. Her efforts helped the Senior Girls' Basket Ball Team win the championship.

"Sing us a song of friendship true."

Laurena Pollock

Laurena's cheerful disposition and gentle way have created many loyal friends for her.

"Eternal sunshine rested on her head."

Lorrain Melser

Studious habits and a genial disposition have won an enviable place in the hearts of his classmates for Lorraine.

"The glory of youth glowed in his soul."

Lloyd Lehnert—"Bud"

His genial, jovial nature made him a boon companion on all occasions.

"O, who will walk a mile with me
Along life's merry way?"

Audery Milliken—"Giggles"

S. O. S.—She can type it; she knows the meaning; and she can heed the call.

"She has kindness and cordiality of manner."

Irene Leuthold—"Reenie"

"Rennie" is one who lives up to all that the word "friend" means.

"She could talk—land how she could talk."

Carl Long

Carl's future will soar in true "Eagle" fashion because he knows the fundamentals of success—pluck and perseverance.

"Men of few words are the best."

Beldon Leonard—"Shiek"

"Our Violinist"—a combination of unusual talent and true sportsmanship is Beldon.

"Not by years, but by disposition is wisdom acquired."

Jessie Hass—"Hassie"

Jessie shines in her own quiet way. She excells in no one thing but does all things equally well.

"Brevity is the soul of wit."

Frances Graham—"Frankie"

Frances is another of those who laugh their way through all care; but unlike some, she comes out on top.

"Happy am I. From care I'm free.
Why ain't they all content like me?"

Thomas Boggs—"Tommy"

When it comes to a rooter for "M. H. S.," "Tommy" can scarcely be beat. His smile and good nature have made him a welcome student.

"On with the dance of olden days" (Scribblers Vaudvil.)

Alban Leyes

His smile and determined manner give assurance of his success in life.

"No matter what my name or age
I am master of my soul."

Ruth Piser

Ruth is one of those quiet, friendly girls that always cares for her own business and so, consequently, always succeeds in doing all things well.

"She knows what is what."

Mary Poole

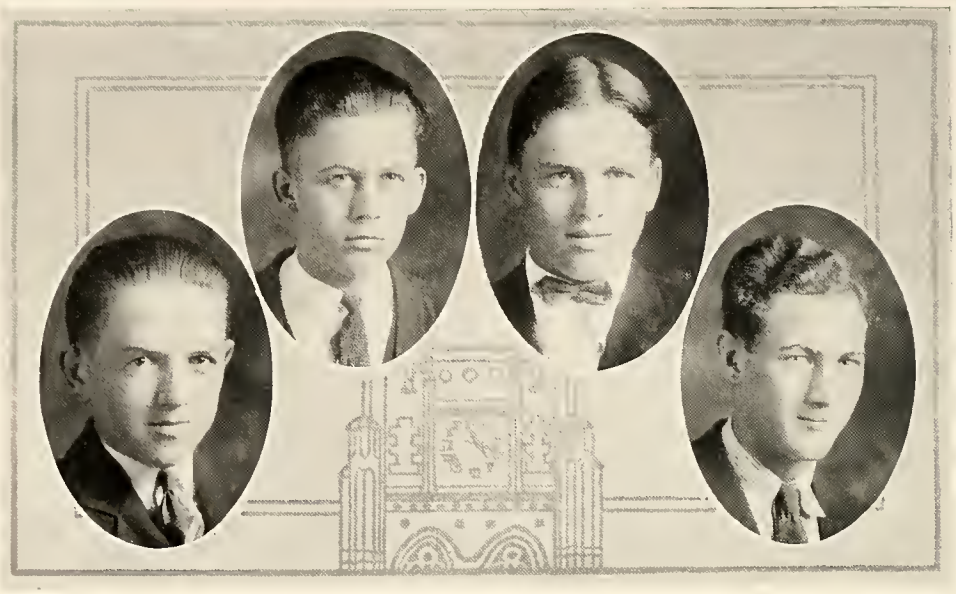
Sincere in all things she undertakes, Mary has always been a leader among her classmates. Her interest in dramatic art is only surpassed by her ability.

"For all that is fair is by nature good."

Alvin Lott—"Shorty"

"Shorty" is one whom all would miss were he taken from our midst. His genial nature and happy disposition have made him a friend of all he meets.

"Let thy speech be better than silence or be silent."



Carl Meyers

Business ability and accuracy have made him an indispensable member of the Senior Class.

"Words are men's daughters;
But God's sons are real."

Hazan Miller—"Druggist"

Hazan's store of knowledge is far from limited. He works with a will and often burns the "midnight oil."

'A druggist, true and great."

Cyril Miller

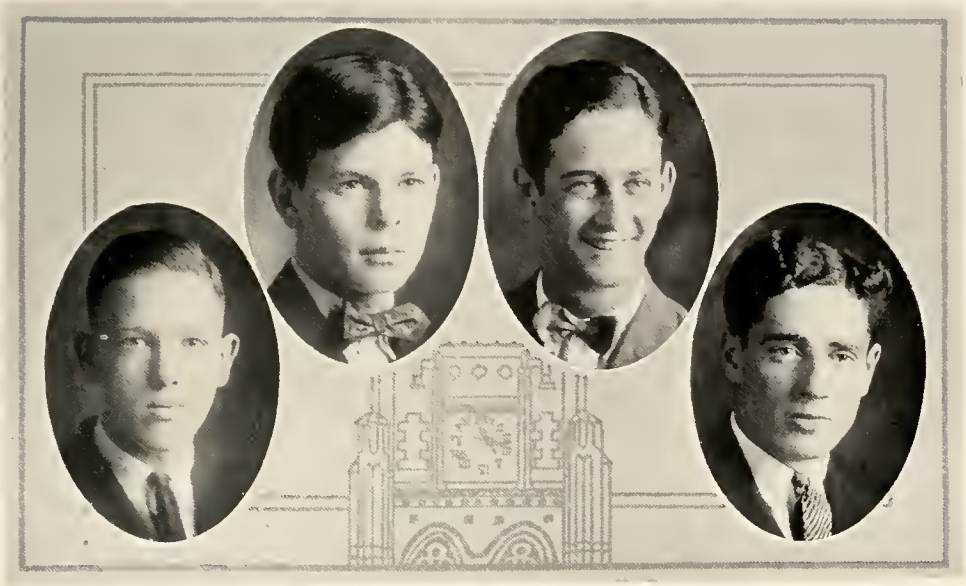
He came to Mishawaka as a Senior but his sterling worth is appreciated by all who have met him.

"I came —I saw— I conquered."

Paul Jordan

Paul's modesty of manner and kindness of disposition have made him worthy of the name of "friend."

"The endearing elegance of female friendship."



Howard Moore

Howard is always so quiet but his ability gives confidence in his success.

"The rank is but the guinea stamp
The man's the gold for a' that."

Ronald Norman—"Ron"

Although he is small in stature, he gets what he goes after. He is always to be found in the rank and file of loyal students.

"Politeness is to do and say—"

Buford O'Blenis—"Pooch"

"Pooch" faces all difficulties in school with his never departing smile.

"Vessels large may venture more,
But little boats should keep near shore."

Devoe Neff—"Neff"

When "Neff" gets into action on the football field, we all know something is going to happen. He was Captain of the '24 team.

"A tower of strength on the gridiron."

John Perkins—"Jack"

We always find in "Jack" a loyal backer, who is forever helping to put over all things for "M. H. S."

"Always in a haste but never in a hurry."

Lynetta Pasko—"Dada"

Ability to do things right and power to be a real friend mark her as a student worth while.

"She then shines forth, solicitous to bless."

Helen Schiffer

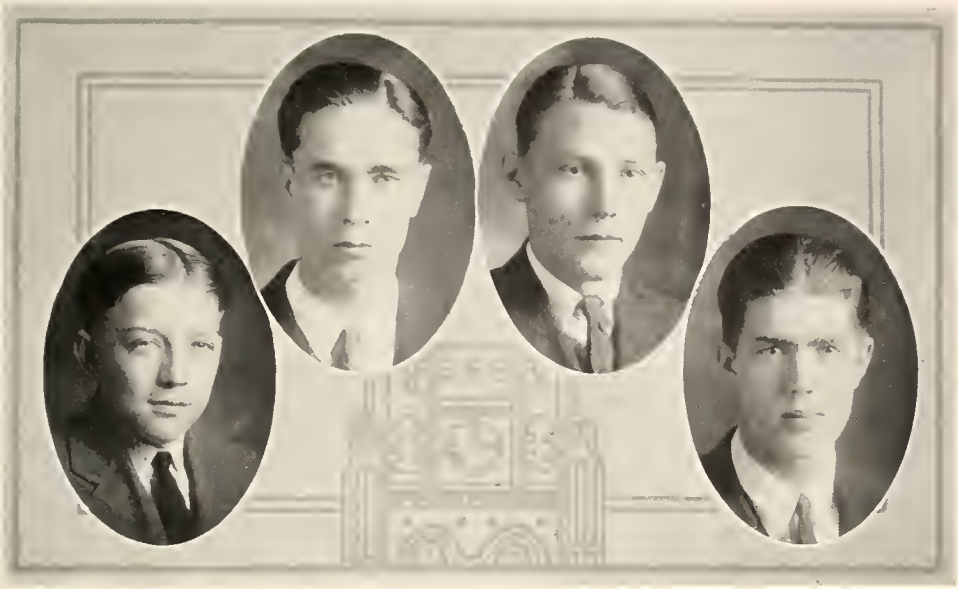
Helen is one of the best athletes that the "Class of '25" can boast of; in track and also in Basket Ball, she has given us reasons to be proud of her.

"Her lively looks a sprightly mind disclose."

Ralph Rupe—"Rupie"

Ralph is one of those jolly fellows that are found in every school. He doesn't seem to let studies trouble him either, but he is ever found in the lead.

"Men of few words are the best men."



Richard Schalliol—"Dick"

"Dick" is small in stature but large in knowledge.

"All things come to him who will but wait."

Orville Renner—"Shorty"

We don't see how he does it, but leave it to "Tommy" to pull in the A's. He is also one of the best boosters that the "Class of '25" has.

"Many small things make a great."

Howard Palmer—"Scrap-Iron"

Howard's good nature and kind manners have won him many friends. He is a loyal friend of all that is good.

"The best of the game is the playing
If you give them the best in you."

Richard Partridge—"Dick"

Dick is a member of the High School Orchestra and works with almost untiring zeal.

"The god of my idolatry."

Albert Philion—"Mosey"

"Mosey" is another of our football men, and when it comes to class plays, we all agree, he certainly can act.

"When he's good, he's good all over
But when he's bad—"

Verna Lowe

Even though she says but little, she has a goodly store of knowledge.

"Sometimes I sits and talks
And sometimes I just sits."

Aleatha Miller

An alert mind combined with a sense of humor make Aletha an invaluable companion.

"Great wits jump."

James Nuner—"Jim"

"Jim" is clever, studious and at all times a gentleman.

"A man who blushes is not quite a brute."

Forest Sprague—"Froggy"

"Froggy" seems slow to people that don't know him, but wait till you get acquainted with him or see him upon a basket ball floor. You surely will change your mind.

"Think only what concerns thee and thy person."

Evelyn Termont

Few people excell Evelyn when it comes to being industrious, studious, and a good sport.

"There can be no great smoke arise but there must be some fire.

Dorothy Vallance—"Dot"

Dorothy is one whom the "Class of '25" would sorely miss if she were not present. She makes a success of everything she undertakes, especially Shorthand.

"Stately and tall she moves in the hall."

Arthur Weir—"Art"

No matter where "Art" is he never forgets the qualities that mark a gentleman.

"On with the dance—let joy be unconfined."

Robert Seaman—"Bob"

"Bob" belongs to our jazz orchestra that won the cup. He plays a cornet and plays it real well too, even if he is small.

"I am fond of the company of ladies
And when she dances—Oh! Baby!"

Donnabelle Robbins—"Donnie"

"Donnie" is full of pep and fun, and even though she studies hard at time, she manages to laugh.

"The first hundred years are the hardest—so they say."

Alta Strickler—"Shorty"

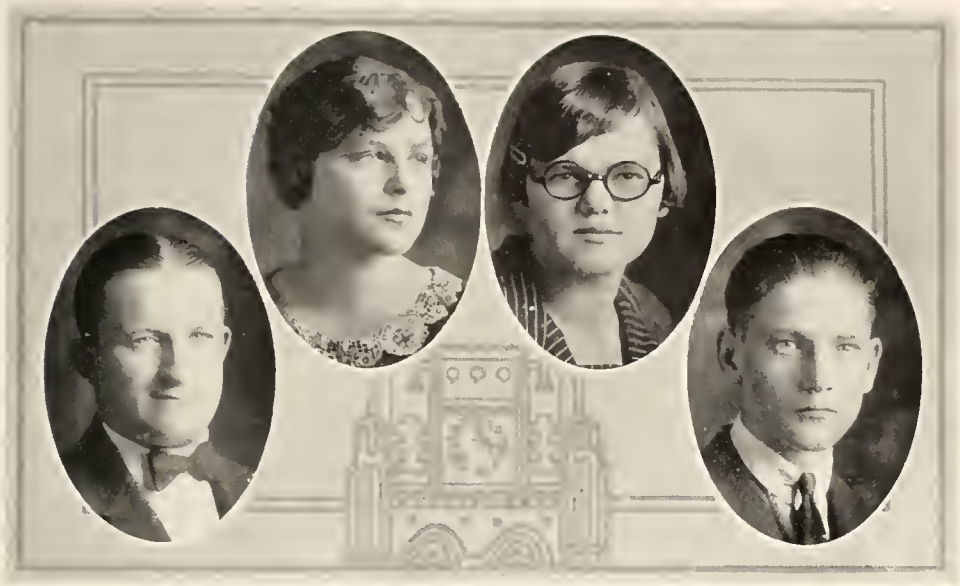
Did you ever hear Alta laugh? If you haven't, you have missed something. When it comes to being a good sport, Alta can hardly be beat.

"Always in a hurry to get work done
So she will have more time for fun."

Orville Strohl—"Watty"

Orville is our ambitious boy, and those ambitions are quite high, too. We hope he can always realize them as he has in "M. H. S." He represented us in the Discussion Contest of '25.

"One who mixed reason with pleasure and wisdom with mirth."



Kenneth Wahl—"Kenny"

"Kenny" has displayed his business ability this year as Business Manager of the Basket Ball team. His dignified manner does credit to his school.

"Dignity rests upon his head."

Nellie Simper—"Nel"

When it comes to playing the piano and pulling down the A's, Nellie is hard to beat. She is a loyal booster in everthing she undertakes.

"As headstrong as an 'allegory' on the banks of Nile."

Velma Western

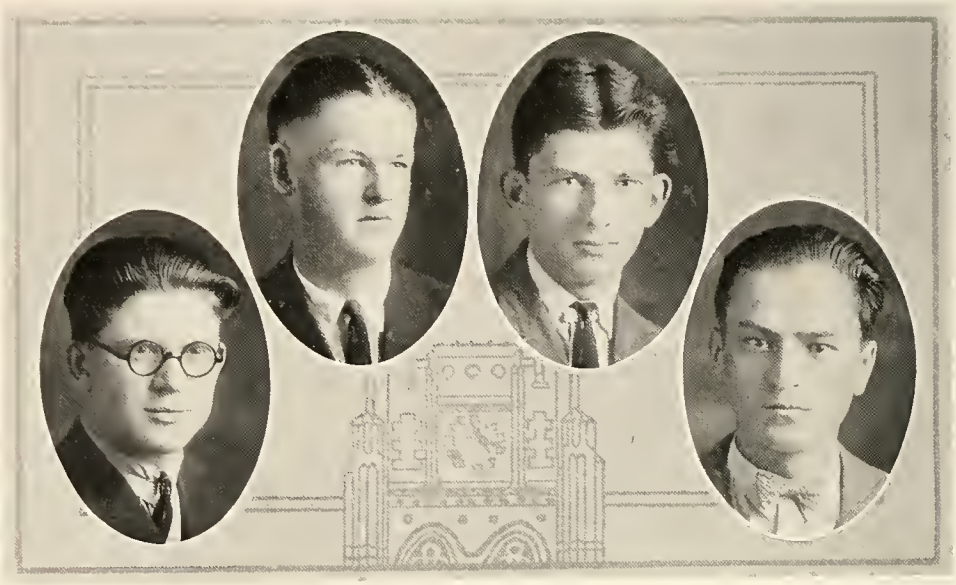
Velma came to us in our Junior year and she soon showed us that she was a valuable asset to the "Class of '25."

"Patience is the best remedy for every trouble."

Alphonso Smith—"Smitty"

"Smitty" came to us in the Junior year from the sunny South but he did not leave his Southern drawl there. We have enjoyed "Smitty" a great deal.

"Carry me back to ole Virginie."



Wade Siler—"Red"

A pleasant smile, a quiet reserve, and unusual ability make "Red" an excellent student.

"Write me as one who loves his fellow men."

John Watson—"Jack"

He is an excellent student in History, a tireless worker in school activities, and he is original.

"Knowledge comes but wisdom lingers."

John Steele—"Steele"

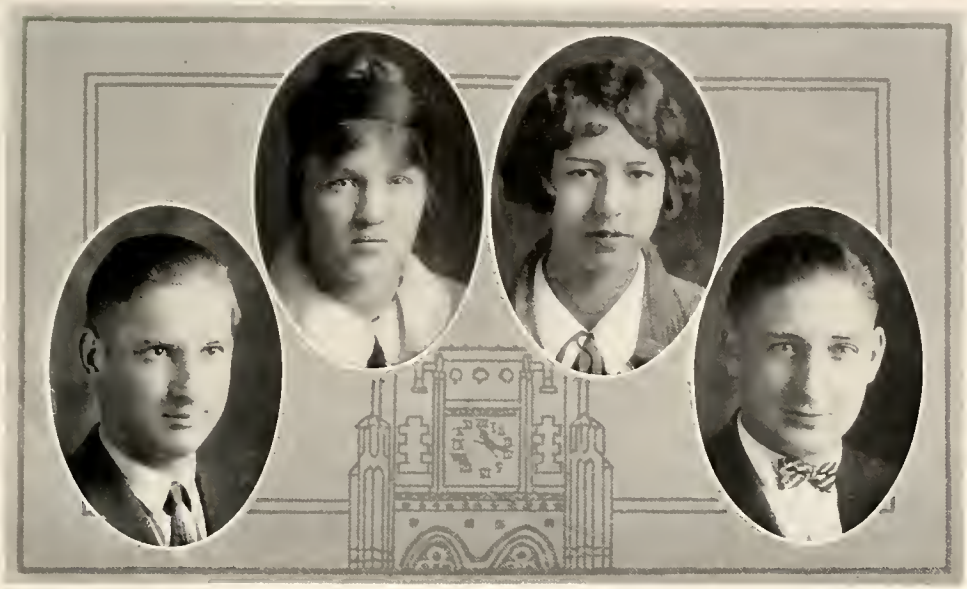
A keen sense of humor that is necessary for success, John possesses.

"A man of independent mind
He looks and laughs at a' that."

Eugene Lovell—"Gene"

His knowledge of fiction, and his appreciation of literature is unusual (when he cares to give expression to them).

"For even tho' vanquished, he could argue still."



Karl Crofoot—"Barney"

Karl's smiling face has cheered the "madding crowd" in the halls of "M. H. S." many times. He never forgets his smile.

"A genial, pleasant companion."

Elizabeth Miller

Elizabeth came from New York City School in her Senior year but it did not take long to discover her true worth as a member of "M. H. S."

"A Latin Shark—but far from dead."

Georgia Kenny—"Kenny"

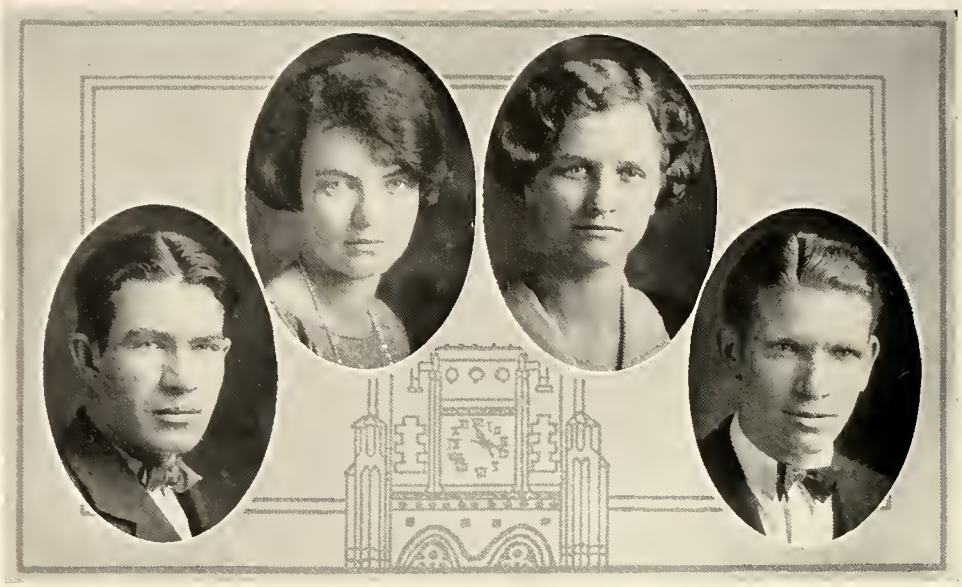
She came to us a Junior but she made an enviable record in scholarship and has hosts of friends.

"The smile that wins—the tints that glow
But tell of days of goodness spent."

William Valentine—"Bill"

"Bill" is our printer. But when we say "printer," we don't mean that he is nothing else, because he is a jolly, good sport, a good book-keeper, and several other things, too.

There is such a choice of difficulties that I, myself, am at a loss as to what to determine."



Welbourne Worthington—"Will"

Welbourne is our artist. He is very quiet but his work speaks for itself.

"Their pith o' sense and pride o' worth
Are higher rank than a' that."

Mildred Woolfe—"Woofie"

The old saying "I never trouble trouble and trouble never troubles me" seems to apply in this case. We are glad, too, because we all would hate to see "Woofie" troubled.

"Pep to the Nth degree."

Fern Shoemaker

Only the few who know her well, know how to appreciate and value her friendship.

"So sweet and gentle."

Ralph Wenman—"Choppy"

"Choppy," his tenor voice, and his banjo present a trio we would all dread to lose.

"Let down the curtain: The play is done."

To the Class of '25

A VISION came to me one night,
And led me in an aerial land,
To mystic shrines whose "storied walls"
Told all the Hopes of Man.

Some scenes were carved in glittering gold
Of quaint but firm design:
Some had been soiled and rendered dim
By tears and fears and crime.

Then in a plastic wall, I spied
Some visions that I knew
Were heartfelt Hopes of Classmates, dear,
That waited to come true.

"Tell me, Vision," then quoth I,
"Can these be real? Can they come true?
What are those faintly wrought designs?
Will they become of golden hue?"

"Your classmates' Hopes are high and bright,
That you see there in plastic sands;
The power to blur or carve in gold
Remains alone within their hands.

"How many hopes will shattered lie,
How many wrought in burnished gold,
How many breathe the word—Success.—
Time will the story true unfold."

So—here's to the class of '25
May their Hopes ever reach the skies;
And there within their mystic shrines
In bronzed gold be kept alive.

Berneice Jones

Class Prophecy

"Bill" Beebler is living alone in a flat,
Taking care of a stray dog and a cat.

Carl Meyers is always caught in the whirls,
Keeping track of Floyd Gygi's girls.

It is her ambition; she thinks that she can,
We all ask the question, "Will Pauline
Hold'erMan?"

Beldon Leonard, the sheik of the town,
As a "Ladies' man" is quite renown.

Someday we'll see Vernon Freed
As editor of "The New" which we all read.

Iona Enyeart—the expert marceller
Is claiming the heart of many a "feller."

When will we consult Bernice Jones
Who specializes in the building of homes?

Alta Strickler went abroad to school,
Studying French, and is no man's fool.

I think every one will find "Kenny" Wahl
Very sociable when passed in the hall.

William Valentine—what puzzles me
Is, just whose Valentine William will be.

Now, "Willie" Coconower, the ladies delight,
Pulls in Osceola's sidewalks at night.

Ruth Piser has entered the halls of fame,
Her "teaching" ability unable to restrain.

Alvin Lott works like the "dickens"
Out on the farm—raising chickens.

Alice Corporan, of her we're very proud;
Chicago Opera sings her praises long and loud.

Devoe Neff, our football Captain,
Is quickly recognized in the world of men.

We find it a very difficult chore
To determine who Bernice is Blume(ing) for.

Though Thelma Bufka ne'er liked her last name,
She found none she liked better,
so kept it the same.

"Dub" Chandler's devoted his life to the farm
And on it he cultivates "Personal Charm."

"Peterkin" Renner we won't forget
Was made famous by drawing a silhouette.

"Christies" name is in the book "Who and How,"
By raising airdales and thorough-bred chow.

"Barney" Crofoot, we hear, has gone back
to the farm;
The personnel of Lydick has lost its charm.

"Watty" Strohl, on the sands of time,
Is following the footsteps of the Navarro
clime.

Ronald Norman, as the records show,
Is with Pavolowa, tripping the light fantastic
toe.

The world goes 'round and always will—
Of fame and fortune Carl Long shall have his fill.

Dorothy Vallance, of Scribbler fame,
In the book of the Angels, we find her name.

Try to win him, if you can,
Paul Baxter is positively a "he" man.

Audrey Milliken, our "Strawberry Queen"
Is the greatest of all in her boss's esteem.

Hazen Miller, as a druggist, will not fail,
He mixes medicines for your ails.

Quiet, good natured, is Velma Western:
Will she, too, be a school teacher, tall and stern?

Louise Kelly can play, Louise can sing,
On Broadway now she is having her fling.

On the Keith Circuit, we find Ralph Wenman,
Singing and playing to the delight of the women.

On a velvet draped platform walks Dale Irwin,
Business for Hart-Shaffner and Marx to win.

Howard Moore has stripped all records bare
In using Stay-Comb for the hair.

Belasco has found a rival of Lon Chaney,
From "M. H. S. he has taken our 'Sheeney."

Buford O'Blenis has won fame,
By marrying a singer, Kate Weir, by name.

From the heights of conceit has fallen "Joe" Cogan,
"I've given it to others" is his slogan.

Harold Garman thinks he's found a fine plan
To reduce; he eats little, walks as much as he can.

Carl Anglin affords the best motor cars
For he obtains divorces for "Hollywood Stars."

From door to door, "Benny" Baer will walk,
Offering each lady his worn "Salesman" talk.

Ruth Barnes is leading a clean, happy life;
She's now introduced as "The Minister's Wife."

Gertrude Gygi, 'tis safe to say,
Is going to be Rich some day.

Hollywood came Albert Philion to claim,
Now "Valentino's Successor" follows his name.

Marguerite Baugher has met with hardships galore,
But she comes through them smiling and ready for more.

Merritt Farrar is known near and far
As the dancing shiek, with a steel guitar.

"Dick" Partridge has driven his wife to despair
With his saxophone melodies in the cool morning air.

The people will all acclaim and hail,
When down the aisle strides Howard and Zelpha Gail.

He, Ralph Rupe, of far seeing vision,
Has published an edict against prohibition.

Our "Donnie" Robbins and well-known "Doc"
Are pushing a perambulator around the block.

Leonard Fisher of High School fame,
Has taken Esther Felton, and changed her name.

Now "Forry" Sprague and "Debby" Heidt,
With their Basket Ball skill, the crowd delight.

Hearld Anthony, in his leisure time,
Traced his ancestry back to Mark Anthony's time.

Our "Bob" and "Saree" are the circus talk;
On wires, high above the ground they walk.

Gladys Metzger, in some future day,
May commence her name with the letter "A."

"Dodee" Enyeart, extremely sedate,
Is arguing cases for the estate.

Alphonso Smith has travelled afar,
But has never been known to utter an "R."

Jennie Ainlay (a word for the wise)
Gives a series of lessons on "How to Roll Eyes."

"Jack Perkins, a plodding electrician,
Has been given a White House position.

"Tommy" Boggs enters the trade of brick-layer,
Helping to make our city more graceful and fairer.

Georgia Baugher, we're sorry to relate
Had to revert to an old maid's fate.

Mary Poole, of the athletic sort,
Can always be found on the Tennis Court.

Junior Class 1922-24

ON the fifth of September, 1922, one hundred and seventy aspiring students took their places as members of Mishawaka High School (after the customary initiation from the upper classmen). On October the nineteenth, the class organized with Melvin Baer, Edward Groff, and Virginia Dresch as leaders. Arlene Johnson represented the class in the oratorical contest. During the year, matinee dances were held in the old Auditorium and the gentle art of dancing was practiced. The social debut of the class was made at the Freshman Frolic, December the twentieth. Several plays were presented and the affair was a great social success.

As Sophomores, the class displayed its dramatic ability in the presentation of these plays—"Suppressed Desires", "The Kink in Kizzie's Wedding", and the "Ghost Story". These were under the direction of Miss Moist, Miss Newhafer and Miss Bonewitz. Mabel Hayes represented the class in the oratorical contest.

The "Class of "26" began work in the new building as Juniors. The first social event on the Junior calendar was the New Year's Dance. The members again distinguished themselves as dramatic artists by their class play. In athletics, the class furnished five members for the Varsity Football Squad and five members of the "first ten string" in Basket Ball.

The crowning event of the Junior year was the Junior "Prom." This brilliant social affair took place in the new gymnasium which was beautifully decorated. The sponsors were Miss Moist, Mr. Shake, Miss Burns and Miss Immel.

The Juniors have made an enviable record as a class. The members have bestowed honor on the class and school in athletics and the literary field. Their activities as Seniors should be even wider and more complete. It is hoped that the members will fill the Senior year to the brim with labor and success so that their memory of their four years in "M. H. S" may be one of satisfaction and pride.

On and On

YES, Oswald, "M. H. S." is a farm. They built it for a school and by the looks of things you would think it was Hollywood. By the looks of things around here we should have a good rouge crop as you can always tell the lay of the land by the sur(face).

Yesterday I met Mis A Waka and she told me her troubles; She wrote a book "Her (Winn)ing ways" by Nellie, and they won't print it. Yes, Oswald the people sure are getting bright. First they made matches, then candles, lamps, electric lights, and, now, real Moon shine. "Now days one doesn't need divine powers to make moon shine," says Rupe.

As Bob (Saunders) down the halls you Sea man, who struts like King Alexander the Great. No, Oswald, when a piece of (Wood) is (Moist) it never (Burns). When (Shake)ing hands with a man the other day, he asked me if I knew that the price of (Steel) had gone up since "M. H. S." made a real grid-machine.

"Wy-land sakes!" he said, "Next year they will Winn over everything."

I. Dolittle and Set. Much was over to the dice range and you should have seen (Him-shoot) the little craps.

But now that the war is over I suppose Parvis will be (Doll)ing up for the Duguid follies. De-Cooks salary was raised which insures us of more regular eats. Yesterday I met a real Chap-Man. Says he, talking about surgical feets, "My father killed the Dead Sea, and I saw it die." I gave him my card and left on the next hearse.

While walking thru the (Park)s I (Fel) like a (ton) of bricks over a Kable. you C. C. that if the K. was out of Kable, it would have been able for me to get across. Albert'son asked me today if I had ever sailed on a Wheat-craft; I had not although sailboats, and steamers were old to me. While solving a Cross word puzzle I could find no place to put the word Im. " Im-mel go in here" said Library and sure enough it did. U. S. has its Muscles Shoals but "M. H. S." has its Mary Ann Scholl.

Jim Nasiams' name has been linked with Miss Newhafers' name in "M. H. S's.." newest romance. When Miss Shoup was asked how old she was she said "I have never told my age to no one. When I was 16, President Adams said to me, "My girl keep your age a secret that is the secret of youth", and I have but if you really must know, it is 19."

I went down town to get some Tichy paper not long ago and I Bett's a man couldn't take me to S. B. in 5 minutes. He would have won if the train would have kept clear the track. Well, after leaving the hospital several odd weeks later, I was surprise in the change of the Weather. The Robbins and King Fishers were singing merrily. Truly no one would have known we were in a Rep. adminstration. No one can say the Juniors have no school spirit with a (Red) (maroon) class president and White Miskodeed editor for the year, and if little Miss Fortune don't show up, this Miskadeed will be a thing of the past, June 1, 1925.

The Board of Control

THE Board of Control was introduced two years ago by Mr. C. C. Cauble and has become one of the most vital organizations of the school. Through it the students participate in the government of the school affairs. Each class and organization in the school has representatives on the Board. The Faculty is represented by five members. Meetings to discuss the affairs and policies of the school are held every two weeks.

Two main reasons for the existence of the Board of Control are—first, to centralize the finances of the classes and organization, and second, to grant to the students a share in the government of school affairs. An elaborate system of Bookkeeping has been installed. Each class and organization has its own account, and money may be advanced to meet immediate needs when necessary.

Members are as follows:

Hi-Y Club

President ..... Albert Philion
Vice-President ..... Paul Baxter
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Carl Long
Board of Control member ..... Carl Christianson

THE Hi-Y Club was organized in 1920 by the efforts of former Principal C. A. Semler, L. E. Goodwin of the South Bend Y. M. C. A. and Mr. Mueller.

The club stands for four things; clean sports, clean fellowship, clean athletics, and clean morals.

Meetings, under the guidance of Mr. Dahl, are held the second Monday of every month. At these meetings prominent business men give talks upon subjects of interest to the boys. These are inspirational meetings, but any business may be brought up. Some of the meetings are devoted to Bible study.

Every week the Hi-Y club holds a "pep" meeting for the Football or Basketball games. Before every game there is some proof of the efficiency of this club as it provides speakers and entertainment for the entire school. The Hi-Y boys helped to arouse the enthusiasm of students by selling buttons for the South Bend Football game. At the Basketball tournament they provided check room service to out-of-town people. They provided printed information cards for visitors during the tournament.

The Hi-Y club has proved that it is one of the best clubs and we hope that this club is continued in the coming years.

Latin Club

President ..... Helen H. Jernegan
Vice-President ..... Helen Fry
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Mildred Shroyer

FOR TWO YEARS the Latin Department has been divided into several clubs, one in each Latin class. This year the department has taken in all the smaller individual clubs, except the Virgil class, and has formed one large club. This club meets on Friday afternoon each month. Only pupils of Latin III or above are eligible for membership.

Very interesting programs are given at the meetings. Among these was a "Roman Wedding" which was presented in November. A party was held in March and was very much enjoyed by all present.

This year Mishawaka entered the State Latin contest with great interest. We trust that the contest will become a permanent institution and will be taken up with greater interest for the following years. The local contest was held on Feb. 13. From this contest, the two receiving the highest grade from each division were chosen to represent the High School in the county contest held at South Bend, Feb. 28. The students to go were Clodine Collins and Hilda Kurtz from Division I and Eloine Wood and Frances Hook from Division II. Clodine Collins and Hilda Kurtz won first place in county contest.

The Latin Clubs this year are under the sponsorship of Miss Adams and Miss Wyland who have made the clubs a great success.

Le Cercle Francais

President ..... Ruth Piser
Vice-President ..... Margaret Harris
Secretary ..... Thelma Forstbauer
Treasurer ..... Robert Sanders

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS is composed of students taking French III and IV. The purpose of the club is to create an interest in French life and customs and to encourage the use of the language.

The meetings which are held the third Thursday evening of the month are devoted to business followed by a program of songs, poems, current topics and a playlet. A number of one act plays have been given such as: "La Poupee," with Houston Baker as Jacques and Marie DeGroote as Mme. Martin: and "Les Etrennes," with Marshall Madlin as Jean and Esther Phillips as Marie. When the auditorium is completed the club hopes to present an assembly program consisting of songs and plays.

By having sandwich and candy sales, money is being raised to buy additional books, maps and pictures for the classroom.

The Scribblers

President _____ Nellie Simper
Scribe _____ Evelyn Termont
B. of C. _____ Hazel Ives

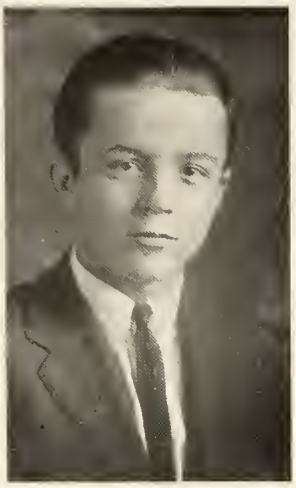
THE SCRIBBLERS organized in 1923, soon after Miss Parvis came to take charge of the Stenographic department of the High School. The purpose of the club is to create greater interest in the Commercial department of the school.

Perhaps the greatest feat of the Club is the financing of the contestants who participate in the District and State Commercial Contests. Last year the Club was successful in getting the District "Meet" here and, also, was successful in retaining the pennant for the School. Three teams were sent to State: Advance Typing, Beginning Shorthand, and Penmanship, and one entrant was sent for advanced Shorthand. These teams ranked high in that contest. This year Mishawaka was again awarded the District "Meet."

The Scribblers made their debut this year in their Vodevil which was presented before a capacity house and was an overwhelming success. Later they were fortunate in securing Miss Dorothy Seegar, a soloist, in a concert given under their auspices.

The Club Meetings are held every other Monday evening. At these meetings a short program is featured, business discussed, and "The Sign of the Four" read from shorthand.



Discussion Contest

Orville Strohl represented Mishawaka in the District Discussion Contest in South Bend.

The Wrangler's Club

President ..... Arlene Johnson
Vice-President ..... Edward Groff
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Laura Stout
Board of Control ..... Howard Thornton

THE WRANGLERS CLUB was organized in 1923 by Mr. F. W. Chapman. The purpose of the organization is to discover and to train new debators The Club meets twice a month. At these meetings current topics are brought up and discussed.

The Wranglers Club this year has had several parties. Besides these the Club held their annual "Wranglers Riddle," which everyone enjoyed.

Membership in the club is controlled by the club members themselves. The two requirements for membership are good scholarship and an interest in debating.

History Club

Chairman ..... Merrit Farrar
Vice Chairman ..... Ethel Buysee
Secretary ..... Zelpha Garns

The History Club was organized by Mr. F. W. Chapman. Under his direction it has worked on projects pertaining to the subject of History.

Engineering Club

President ..... Walter Brady
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Dean Brady

The Engineering Club was first introduced into Mishawaka High School in 1921 by Mr. H. M. Kabel and Mr. E. Sprague. The aim of the Club is to promote and further the trade and technical training of the school and to provide a means of securing useful knowledge and first hand contact with the world of industry. Meetings are held every month.

Music Department and Clubs

The Music Department has become one of the most interesting in the High School. The music clubs and orchestra afford excellent training for the students and add much enjoyment to the numerous social events in the school and city.

Girls' Athetic League

Officers

THE GIRLS' Athletic League has recently been placed on an equal basis with that of the Boys' League by joining the Indiana Athletic Association. Much enthusiasm and interest are put into this club and it now has a membership of 35. No one is eligible until she has earned at least one hundred points in some phase of athletics such as Basketball, Volley Ball, or Track.

There has been a revision of the point system for athletic rewards, the points have been raised so high that it is a very difficult to win a reward. This, however, makes the person receiving the reward more appreciative. The following is a list of the points given for different feats.

Girls Basketball Credits

20 points for each game, 5 points for each quarter Track.
5 points for entering, 5 points for each event entered.
10 points for winning first place, 5 points for second place, and 3 points for third place.

To the winner of one thousand points, a sweater is given, an "M" is awarded for seven hundred points, and a numeral for four hundred.

The Girls' Athletic League gave the first Jitney Dance of the season in the new "Gym."

Our Yell Leaders

"M. H. S." was very fortunate this year in having such excellent yell leaders, and I am sure every one appreciates their untiring efforts to draw just a little more noise from us than we were giving them.

Merritt Farrar
"Joe"

Much to the surprise of everyone, "Joe" was an aspirant for the position of yell leader, and after leading us in several yells, he was unanimously elected by the Athletic Association.

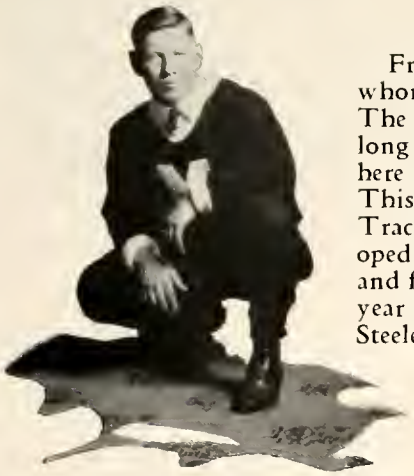
Joe gave us his best while he was able to lead us, but as he was ill for some time with heart trouble resulting from scarlet fever, Bennie and Zelpha had to do most of the work. All of us will remember the new yell he taught us and his favorite, "OH! BOY!" (And didn't we have "some" teams!)

Melvin Baer
"Bennie"

Ever since Bennie came into High School he has been a yell leader; first of the Freshmen, then the Sophomores, the Juniors and finally one of the school. We all liked his work while Joe was ill and we know the yell he got the noise with—"THE SIREN."

Zelpha Garns
"Zelph"

Zelpha was an able yell leader and we also hear that she is going into Miss Winn's territory as a director of Music. Well! she can lead the Victory Song, and Locomotive.



Coach Steele

Frank M. Steele, our football coach, is a man of whom Mishawaka "High" can well be proud. The wonderful results of his coaching will live long in the memories of the students. He was here last year as Director of Physical Education. This year he was appointed Coach of Football and Track. With only a few regulars back he developed a fighting machine that lost only the opening and final game of its schedule. The results of this year are but a promise of the future with Coach Steele's methods.

Coach Shake

S. S. Shake, our new basketball coach, comes from Cloverdale, Indiana, where he enjoyed unusual success in coaching. Although he was here last year, he took no active part in coaching. This year he was appointed Basketball memtor. He faced the grave difficulty of training a new team, and he overcame the handicap in fine shape. For the first time in the school's history, we won the District tournament and humbled our ancient rival —South Bend.

Heiser

Schuler

Fuson

Fuson and Shuler were injured at the first of the season. Heiser was "sub."

Neff

Capt. Neff led the "Maroon and White" eleven through the most successful season Mishawaka High has had in years. He is a three letter man, having played at the tackle position for three years. Neff was an ideal captain and versatile player. He played a good game at all times. He always had the support of the team. This is his last year in "M. H. S." and his absence will be greatly felt.

D. Brady

"Pat" Brady was our "triple-threat" artist. His long punts at the South Bend game will never be forgotten. Although injuries kept him out of one or two games, he was in all of the important ones. He was a fast runner, when he carried the ball. Brady will be back next year and a great season is predicted for him.

Himschoot

Himschoot took care of the right end berth. He was a good offensive player and could be depended upon to have a path open for the backfield men on their excursions around end. He was a hard fighter and with work will make a wonderful player next year.

Kline

Mark Kline was used as utility guard during the season. He was a "sub" in many games. His ability was brought to the front in the South Bend and Goshen games when he filled in Ullery's position. He played the entire game at Cartier Field and did it like a veteran. He has promise of being a great player next year.

Ullery

Ullery was a great defensive guard and later, a good offensive player. He was a man who could be depended upon to take care of the position. Although he was hurt before the South Bend game and was unable to play, he made up for it in the Elkhart game. This was Sherm's last year.

Ernhart

Our smallest (?) man on the squad was Ernhart. He took care of all the pivot work and did it to perfection. "Stan" was an accurate passer and was like a stone wall on defense. He has plenty of speed and we want him back at center or tackle next year. He worked havoc with the line plays in the South Bend game. He will be back another year.

Christianson

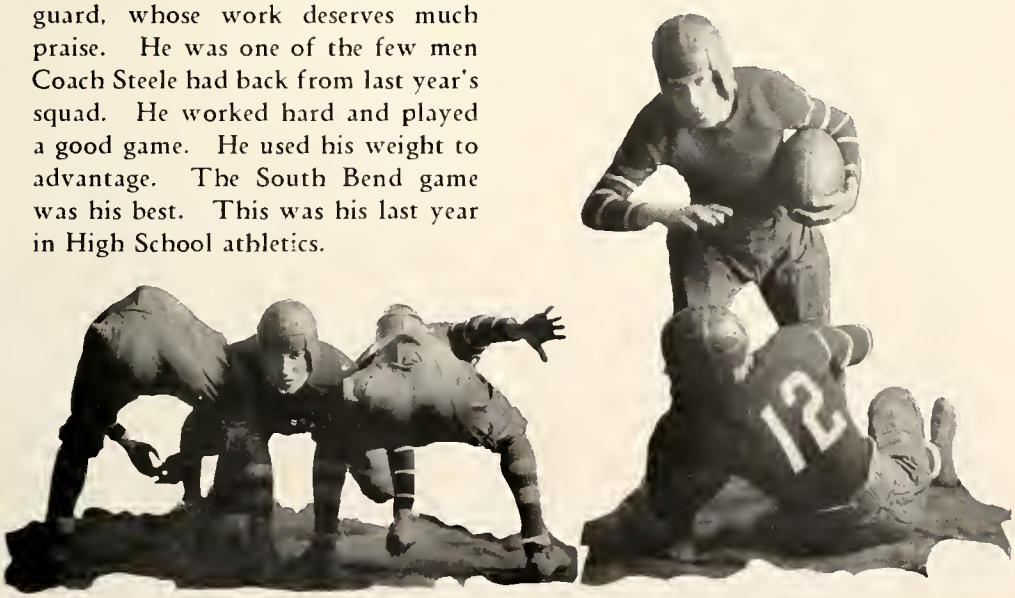
This was "Swede's" first year on the Varsity, and he developed into all that could be asked of a good tackle. He was a good offensive and defensive man and took care of his position fine. His playing at South Bend and Elkhart was the best of the season. Playing his last game for M. H. S., he "messed" up Elkhart's plays on his side of the line.

Neff

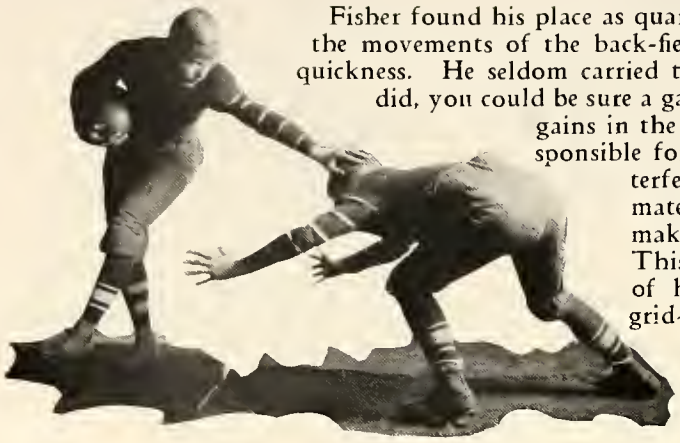
Don Neff was given his chance at half-back when Brady was injured. He showed up so well that his appearance in the line-up after that was frequent. He was very good at finding holes in the line. He was a sure tackler and hard plunger. Hard work will make him a great player next year.

Philion

Philion was a "hard-hitting" guard, whose work deserves much praise. He was one of the few men Coach Steele had back from last year's squad. He worked hard and played a good game. He used his weight to advantage. The South Bend game was his best. This was his last year in High School athletics.



Fisher



Fisher found his place as quarter-back. He directed the movements of the back-field with precision and quickness. He seldom carried the ball, but, when he did, you could be sure a gain was made. His long gains in the Goshen game were responsible for the victory. His interference for his running mates enabled them to make many long gains. This season was the climax of his four years on the grid-iron. Under his leadership the team ran a total of 185 points to their opponents 58.

Webster

One of the "finds" of the season that Coach Steele brought forth was Webster, left end, who at times showed wonderful ability at catching passes. With hard work he can become one of the best ends in the State. By nabbing a pass in the S. B. game, he scored the only touch down. Many an end run failed when tried around his end. "Web" was a Sophomore.

W. Brady

The main cog in the back-field machine was Walt Brady, who made good at the full-back position after being shifted from tackle. He was the fastest starting full-back Coach Steele has ever had. Walt was a great defensive and offensive player and was the hardest "hitting" player in back-field. Brady was a consistent player.

Lindzy

Lindzy will lead the Maroon "gridders" on the field of battle next fall as Captain. He was in every game with a fighting spirit that helped his comrades on to victory. He was fast and on numerous occassions eluded his tacklers for long gains around the ends. He scored the only touchdown for "M. H. S." in the Elkhart game when he caught the pass from Fisher and raced over the goal.

The Season

A new school building and athletic field have helped arouse the spirit of the school and produce a team that bids well for the future fame of "M. H. S." in Athletics. Coach Steele was appointed coach this year. With only three "letter men" back and undergoing many difficulties, he put a Football team on the field that will stand out in the annals of the school. The team was well on its way to the championship until it met Elkhart. There it suffered defeat by a better team. It was on the sod of the Cartier Field that the Maroons won a new name—"The Fighting Cavemen." "M. H. S." followers watched their "green" team lose the first struggle of the season to East Chicago, 28-0. They watched it take hold and defeat all of its opponents by decisive scores until the final game with Elkhart.

East Chicago Game

For the first time in three years, East Chicago was able to defeat Mishawaka. During the first quarter neither team was able to make much progress, as both teams resorted to line plunges. In the second quarter, East Chicago made several substantial gains by aerial attack. Much credit goes to Paulson, East Chicago's left-half, who completed many passes for their longest gains. It was in the second quarter that Lindzy showed his tackling ability by not missing a tackle. In the third quarter "Pat" Brady injured his knee. In the last quarter, Mishawaka out played East Chicago but the team lacked the punch to put over the touchdowns. The game ended with the Maroons at the tail end of a 28-0 score.

025 MISKODEED

March, March on down to fame,
We're out to win this game,
Our coach and all his men
Are just what they seem.

Niles Game

The Maroons easily won their first home game of the season by defeating Niles "High" by a 28-0 score. The first touchdown was put over the goal by Walt Brady .The backfield combination of "Pat" and "Walt" Brady, and Fisher was the best. They caught the visitors off guard by many line plunges and sweeping end runs. Don Neff played well at right half. The team showed improvement since the week previous. Lindzy ran for many 10, 20, and 30 yard gains. Whenever the Mishawaka goal was in danger, "Walt" Brady's punts could be depended upon.

Plymouth-Mishawaka

After two weeks of rest, Mishawaka High School's eleven smothered the inexperienced Plymouth team under an avalanche of touchdowns. The Crimson squad gave little opposition to the Maroons, who ran up a lead of 48 points in the first half. Lindzy with Dean and Walt Brady seemed to have no difficulty in making long gains through the line or around end. The second string was inserted during the second half and held the Plymouth eleven in check fairly well. This was Plymouth's first year in football and they will probably develop a formidable team in later years.

Oh! Boy! Some Team!
Who?
Mishawaka, That's us.

The Warsaw Game

"Let's Beat Warsaw" was the slogan of the day, October 25. The result was a 48-0 victory for "M. H. S." Avenging a defeat of three consecutive seasons, the Mishawaka team showed wonderful improvement. Mishawaka received the ball on the kick-off and advanced it to our forty yard line; and in a few plays the ball was carried over for the first touchdown by Webster, who received a long pass from Walt Brady. Time after time "Pat" Brady, like Lindzy carried the ball for long runs around the ends. "Walt" Brady, like a steam roller, went through the "Gold and Black" line for successive gains. Don Neff scored two touchdowns; one by an end run, the other by a pass over goal. Capt. Neff broke through the Warsaw line repeatedly blocking punts. Christianson and Webster let nothing come around their end. Webster played a wonderful game, catching every pass. He was responsible for two touchdowns in the game. Nothing came through the line with Ernhart, Philion, and Ullery on guard. The second string was put into the game. In the last few minutes, Aldrich received a pass which he carried over for the final touchdown.

Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Maroon and White, Maroon and White!
Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Maroon and White, Maroon and White!

LaPorte Game

The following Saturday Mishawaka "High" added another victory to its list, when it defeated the strong LaPorte eleven, 18-7. LaPorte's lone score came in the early minutes of the game. This was a fumbled punt and the recovery was made by Johnson, their guard, who ran a few yards for their only touchdown.

"Maroon and White" players failed to show their usual ability in the first half. At the end of the first half they were trailing by a 7-6 score. At the beginning of the last half, the old fighting spirit was revived by "Walt" when he made a 25 yard run to the 10 yard line and it was only a matter of seconds until Mishawaka was leading 12-7. Then the team settled down and played a steady game. Making their line plays count every down. Mishawaka soon added another six points to the total. From then to the end of the game, the ball seesawed between both teams with Mishawaka having the best of the argument. In the last few minutes, LaPorte threatened to score again by the aerial route but their hopes were thwarted when the pass was intercepted at the 30 yard line. From then on the ball was in our possession.

Ya-ha, Ya-ha, Ya-ha-ha-ha
Mishwaka, Mishawaka, Rah, Rah, Rah,
Mishawaka, Mishawaka, That's our cry.
V - I - C - T - O - R - Y - !

South Bend Game

"All things come to him who will but wait," was proved to be true at the annual clash of the Mishawaka and South Bend teams at Cartier Field November 8. Over two thousand fans and students witnessed the fray.

Early in the first quarter, a long pass was shot amidst a group of South Bend players. Two hands shot up above the rest and snagged the ball. It was Webster the left end, who dashed five yards for the only touchdown in the game. Lindzy failed in his attempt to make the point after goal. For the rest of the half, the ball was in the middle of the field, as neither team had an advantage. The half ended, Mishawaka 6, South Bend 0.

It was in this game that the "Maroon and White" eleven received their name of "Cavemen." In the third quarter, Mishawaka players showed their real superiority. They carried the ball to the "Orange and Blue" 25 yard line. Fisher called his team into pass formation, the ball was passed to Lindzy, who stepped back two paces and put over a beautiful drop-kick from the 30 yard line. Not until the last quarter did the Orange and Blue have a chance to score. They opened up a frenzied aerial attack in the last few minutes. This was the last gasp of a fighting team. The game was over. "M. H. S." had conquered her ancient rival.

Capt. Neff and his proteges were as a tower of strength on defense and took everything before them on the offensive. "Walt" Brady, full-back was at his best. It was a treat to see Lindzy, the Maroon, flash his numerous excursions, around end. "A team that won't be beaten, can't be beaten," tells the story of the South Bend game.

Goshen Game

The following Saturday at Goshen, "M. H. S." again emerged from the scuffle victorious. Goshen proved to be a determined team. They fought the "Cavemen" to a scoreless tie in the first half. Mishawaka outplayed their opponents but neither team was able to score. Few plays were uncovered on account of the presence of many Elkhart scouts. In the last half the "Cavemen" showed flashes of their regular form. Walt Brady carried the ball across in the first two minutes and kicked the goal. Towards the close of the game, Fisher made a long run that brought the ball within scoring distance. A pass from Dean Brady to Webster placed the ball on the Goshen's two yard line. Lindzy carried it over and kicked goal. Over confidence was almost fatal to the Maroon and White Eleven.

Elkhart Game

As the lengthening shadows turned to twilight on Rice Field, Elkhart "High" still reigned supreme. The flashy Peterson and his cohorts were responsible for the defeat handed Mishawaka "High" when the two teams met for district honors. The "railroad city" lads could equal all the clever blocking, shifting and broke up the wonderful interference of the Cavemen. They deserve the honor of victory for they were superior in every department of the game.

After Elkhart kicked off to Mishawaka, the ball was carried down the field by both teams, only to be lost on downs. Early in the second quarter, Elkhart started a drive down the field and Peterson soon scored their first counter. A few minutes later Mishawaka recovered a fumble, and on a series of line plunges took the ball to the 20 yard line, where a pass from Fisher to Lindzy was successful. Lindzy side-steeped his way through their defense for Mishawaka's only touchdown. The goal kick was made by Lindzy which made the score 7-6 for "M. H. S." In the closing seconds of the first half Elkhart put over another touchdown. The score at the half was 12-7.

The third quarter was another scoreless period. Three times the Blue and White eleven were under the shadow of the Maroon and White goal-posts but were held for downs. This shows the dogged determination and the fighting spirit of the "Cavemen." Outweighed 15 to 20 pounds to the man, they fought like demons to stem the charge of the wonder team.

In the final period, Peterson raced 65 yards for a touchdown. Late in the last quarter, a number of passes put Elkhart again in scoring position. A pass Peterson to Hughes, who was standing behind the goal was complete. Fisher reeled off a nice 50 yard gain in the last half, and Walt Brady made a long gain through the line. The game ended with Elkhart leading 24-7.

Sprague

Sprague was playing his third year on the "Varsity," and was feared by all teams. His speed and ability to "hit" was a thing that our opponents feared. He was given the forward position of the All-Sectional team. We lose Forrest this year and wish him success in whatever line of work he may take up.

Lindzy

Lindzy was the one that was called upon to fill Heidt's place when he was out of the game. He was one of the fastest dribblers that the Maroon Machine possessed. Lindzy was one that could be depended upon. He was always out for practice and worked hard. He has only one year left and we expect him to be in the line-up.

Eminger

When it comes to the place where the coach needed a man to fill some positions regardless of what one, it was always "Al." He was one of the best "all-round" players that Coach Shake had. He could play any position and play it well. "Al" was exceptionally strong on defense and a wonderful "feeder." In the Elkhart game, he proved that he could guard the best of them regardless of size and speed. Two more years for "Al."—"Nuff sed."

Heidt

Capt. Heidt, floor guard for the last two years, was one of the main cogs in the Maroon defense. Capt. Heidt was given the floor guard position on the All-Sectional and Regional teams. This goes to show that Heidt has proven himself a real player. He was considered by many as one of the most polished guards in the regional. We lose Heidt, and to fill his place will be no easy task.

Doyle

Doyle was one that could be depended upon when it came to tearing up the opponents "tip-off" plays. He proved to the school that he could play ball in the game against South Bend here. He was given the center position on the All-Sectional team. Doyle has two more years and should be a real center by his senior year.

Brady

Dean Brady was one of the best passers that Coach Shake had on his team. He was always in the right place and could be depended upon to do as he was told. Dean was given forward position on the All-Sectional and Regional teams, which means much to a boy who was playing his first year. We have great hopes for Dean another year.

Himschoot

Himschoot started the season as a pivot man, but was found to be a real back guard in the South Bend game here, and from that time on he was the one that spoiled many a close-in shot for his opponents. "Cy" has one more year to represent his school, and the school is proud to have one of his calibre both as a student and player.

Brady

Walt Brady was the life of the Reserve. He was always up and doing. He was one of the best workers that the coach had. When it came to fight and determination, Walt was there. We wish you success in all athletics.

Kline

Mark Kline was just a Sophomore, and he made things move on the Reserve. He was successful in making the tourney team, too. Mark has a wonderful chance to show his ability in the next two years. There will be a real battle with any one who tries to get ahead of Mark.

DeCook

We are more than sorry that we haven't DeCook's picture. To Raymond goes the credit of playing wide-awake basket ball in the LaPorte game at the Gary Regional. We were proud of every turn he made. In the LaPorte game he proved that he could fill a forward position and will be on the job for three more years. Fine Raymond, "Good Luck" to you.

The Season's Games

THE Mishawaka High School Basket Ball Team began its schedule Friday, December 5, when it journeyed to Ligonier and lost a hard fought game by the score of 22-20. During the game many subsitutions were made. The team work of the Maroons was good throughout the game.

The following evening Nappanee was encountered on their floor. During the first half, Nappanee piled up a comfortable lead of 12 points. In the last half, by the crafty general shift and subsitutions of Coach Shake, the score was brought up from 18 to 32. At the final whistle, Nappanee led by only one point.

Mishawaka fell before the accurate shooting LaPorte team by the score of 34-19. Occasional spurts of good shooting by Dean Brady and Sprague formed the only bright spots in the team's playing.

The "Y" Gym was filled to overflowing when Mishawaka and South Bend took the floor. The Benders were out to avenge their defeat in Football. Their short pass attack proved to be disastrous to the Mishawaka Five, and the half ended 25-6 in the Benders favor. The last half marked a vast change in the playing of Coach Shake's men. Their passing and playing was much better. The doubled their score of 6 in a short time but could not pass the lead of the Orange and Blue.

The Mishawaka Five journeyed to Plymouth where they were nosed out in a thrilling contest, 26-25. Each team was evenly matched. It was a charity toss in the last minute of play that decided the score for Plymouth.

With a big lead to their advantage Brazil took things easy and succeeded in giving the Maroons a severe defeat. Shake's proteges fought hard so that the initial contest in the new Gym would be a victory. The "Down-Staters" showed wonderful ability to make baskets, and their passing was superior to the Mishawaka Five. At the final whistle, the score was 33-15.

For the first time in years Mishawaka was able to have the South Bend "Five" on a home court. Time after time the crowd was brought to its feet by a basket for either side which put South Bend or Mishawaka in the lead. South Bend would drop one through the net, which would be followed by a basket by the Maroons.

The score at the half was 13-13. Soon after the first half was over the Benders ran the score up to 17-13. The Cavemen evened the count with a long shot by Doyle and two free tosses by Ernhart. Both teams were fighting . In the final minutes of play, Mishawaka forged again one point by a charity toss. With the gun in the air and Mishawaka preparing to celebrate her first victory, Bakos obtained the ball and tore through to the foul line and Swish!! The basket nosed the Maroons out of a victory. The game ended a second later with a 21-20 score.

Mishawaka shook itself loose from a series of defeats and emerged from the scuffle with Kendalville "High" with their first victory of the season. When the final whistle blew, the score was 33-34.

Mishawaka added the second victory to its credit when the team easily won from the visiting Niles quintet. The final score was 24-11.

Encouraged by their recent victories, Mishawaka journeyed to Elkhart where they defeated the strong Elkhart team 27-21. Sprague and Brady swept down the floor and made many baskets. The floor work of Heidt and Lindzy was excellent. Doyle at center was a big help to the team. Capt. Heidt fractured his shoulder for the second time this season.

"M. H. S." defeated Goshen easily in a fast and at times rough game in the latter's new "Gym." The game was featured by the fine offensive teamwork of the locals. The glass backboards had no detrimental effect on the bombardment of the locals at the basket. The final score was 32-18.

"M. H. S." proved its superiority over the "Down-Stater" quintet for the second time during the season when it sent Kendalville home with the burden of a 31-18 defeat. Fine Game!

Mishawaka met the Bremen quintet and annexed another victory to it's "Won" column in a one-sided contest. The visitors put up a hard battle, but were soon left behind. The first half was rather slow but Sprague, Doyle and Brady began to set a hot pace in the last chapter and when the gun was fired the Bremen Five were trailing at a 41-20 count.

The following evening the team journeyed to Niles where it lost by a 15-11 score. The playing of both sides was slow. The Niles team used rough tactics to win. One lone field goal was made by Lindzy: the rest were from the foul line.

La Porte again defeated Mishawaka High in a fast game here. The La Porte five soon had 5 points to their credit after the opening tip-off. Lindzey then put in a long shot from the middle of the court for the Maroons. The accurate shooting of the La Porte Five kept them in the lead. In the last half the "Three Basketeers" of Mishawaka began to work together and were soon close to the La Porte score. The game ended a few minutes later with La Porte leading 38-32. The visitors seldom missed in the attempts for field goals as each of their men had wonderful shooting ability. Capt. Heidt was again in the line-up after an absense of three weeks.

Elkhart revenged an early defeat at the hands of the Maroons when they gave the latter a 38-32 beating. The Elkhart team showed vast improvement over its old form and won the game when the locals weakened in the last half.

The Mishawaka High net squad swept through the ranks of the Bremen five for a 29-8 victory. The game was decidely in favor of the Heidtmen. In the final period the defense of the Maroons worked to such perfection that Bremen scored but two points from the foul line.

The following evening Ligonier was the opponent of the Mishawaka Five in the final game of the schedule. Mishawaka avenged their former defeat by completely outclassing them as shown by a 38-15 score. The Maroons had little difficulty in defeating the visitors. Sprague. Brady and Capt. Heidt scored 11 points each. The Ligonier squad had little team work while the Maroon and White squad worked together with precision and ease.

Sectional Tournament

In the opening round of the tournament Mishawaka was paired with Knox. The Knox men put up a hard fight but were soon left behind. At the half the score stood 10-6 in favor of M. H. S. Our scoring combinations was Sprague, Brady and Doyle. The final score was 24-14. In the final game of the evening, Lakeville and Hamlet took the floor against each other. Lakeville experienced little difficulty in defeating the Hamlet five 24-10.

Morning Session

North Liberty won easily from the New Carlisle squad in the first game in the morning session. The score, was 31-13. The South Bend "Five" swung into action against the Walkerton team. The Benders had easy going in trampling over the Walkerton quintet for a 35-10 victory. In the last game of the morning, Mishawaka completely outclassed the Madison Township five by a 61-3 score. The "Shakemen" scored from every angle of the floor.

Semi-Finals

As the survivors of the earlier games were brought to the front, the Lakeville five won their game with North Liberty. The score was 14-8.

The big game of the day was when the South Bend and Mishawaka quintets met for the third time this season to decide who would be the superior. Both teams were in fine condition. At three o'clock the thrilling game was under way. South Bend scored first on a free throw. Doyle came back with a two pointer from under the basket. Brady added two more on charity tosses. Smith made the "Benders" lone basket from the middle of the floor, the half ended with "M. H. S." in the lead 3-6. Doyle caged the sphere on a short one early in the final chapter. Brady made his attempts on free throws. South Bend scored two points on fouls. Doyle took the ball and dribbled down the floor in a flash and his fourth basket was made. Brady added another point from the charity line. With the ball opposite the hoop on a "tip-off," Doyle tipped the ball into the net. Hertle made a difficult shot from the side. Himschoot was withdrawn because of fouls. Burke entered the game and made good a long shot. Hertle made good his attempt for a basket. The Benders fought furiously to sink in another shot but their attempts ended in failure. The game ended 17-15. South Bend five had finally fallen before a Maroon squad. It was a great day for Mishawaka and a sorrowful one for South Bend.

Finals

Lakeville was eliminated in the finals. Lakeville counted once on a field goal and three times from the foul stripe. The final score was 39-7. It was a fitting close to Mishawaka's first tourney. Some interesting facts may be added; in the four games Mishawaka played, they scored a total of 141 points to their opponents 39 and averaged 35 points a game. This is indeed, an enviable record.

Regional Tourney

Mishawaka was nosed out of a victory in the regional tournament by the accurate shooting La Porte "five" in an overtime contest. The Maroons were slow in hitting their stride. The La Porte "five" began scoring by a short throw from under the basket. They followed this by another with a gain of two points. The La Porte "cagers" had 12 points to their credit before the Maroons scored. Captain Heidt scored the initial point for "M. H. S." on a foul. Brady broke through their defense for a lay-in shot and repeated a second later with another. Heidt and DeCook each were able to sink a basket before the half ended, with M. H. S. trailing 18-11. Both teams fought desperately in the last half. The Maroons gradually overcame the lead of the La-Porte "five." Brady scored three times, Heidt sank a short one from the field and DeCook made a "lay-in" shot and later dribbled down the floor for another counter. DeCook was successful on a shot beneath the basket, and was fouled. He made one of his attempts from the foul stripe. This tied the score. In the overtime period, La Porte scored two points by free throws and followed by a basket. DeCook dropped in a short one and Brady scored two points from the foul line. The score was tied again and one minute to go. Brady hurt his ankle, but was able to resume playing. In the final minute Pease started on a rampage and scored two baskets in quick succession. "M. H. S." was downed but only after giving La Porte the stiffest battle they had in the tournament.

Girls' Athletics

WITH the aid of an excellent instructor, good equipment and a wonderful new gymnasium, girls' athletics have reached a very high standard in the past year. Much alacrity was shown in every phase of the gym course, and the students were very enthusiastic about their work.

It was impossible for the girls to play Hockey this year, as there was no suitable place available. Last year the game was introduced into the course by Miss Newhafer. It was accepted with the greatest enthusiasm; every one enjoyed the game. Many interesting and exciting games were played. Disappointment was evident among the girls at the handicap of this season.

The Exhibition

The annual gymnastic exhibition under the auspices of the Athletic League was given this spring by the girls' gym classes. Ability and skill were displayed in each of the different feats executed. Among the various events were: marching tactics, pyramid building, drills, and dances. The exhibition was well attended and enjoyed by all, the proceeds were given to the Girls' Athletic League.

Interclass

After several successful games the Seniors were declared the winners and champions of the Interclass Basket Ball games of 1925. The Seniors were able to win because of their superior playing, and their accuracy in shooting baskets.

The Schedule and Scores of the games were as follows:

Freshmen vs. Sophomores	6-11	Freshmen vs. Senior	5-58
Junior vs. Senior	13-17	Senior vs. Sophomore	30-4
Sophomore vs. Junior	4-8	Junior vs. Freshmen	29-6

Volley Ball

No Senior team appeared, so to fill the gap, there were two Freshmen teams picked from the large number entering and the winner of the Freshmen match played the winner of the Junior-Sophomore contest. The Juniors being the supreme team, won both their games and were proclaimed champions.

Interclass indoor Baseball and a Track Meet composed the late season activities for the girls.

Track

WITH the close of the net season, came the call for track. About forty aspirants responded. There was indoor practice twice a week until after Easter after which there were daily work-outs. A temporary field was equipped across from the high school building. The new athletic field will not be finished until next fall.

From last year's squad, we have Palmer in the distance runs, Freed, in the dashes and Christianson, Doyle, and Brady in the field events. Kemper, our quarter-miler, will not take part in any meet due to physical disabilities. Many of the newcomers have been showing up well. Webster will probably make good in the high jump and broad jump. An invitational meet with Gary, April 25, will be the first meet for the Maroons to take part. The following Saturday there will be a meet at Goshen. On May 9, a meet will be held at Cartier Field.

Coach Steele has charge of the field events while Coach Shake coaches the distance and dash men.

The Scribblers' Vodevil

THE students of "M. H. S." were very pleasantly entertained Monday evening, November 24, 1924, at the Battell School by the Vodevil given by the Scribblers. One very interesting and pleasing act was "As You Like It" by Wilbur Fredricks and Ralph Wenman. "The Obstinate Family," a one-act play coached by Miss Duguid, provided enjoyment to all. The Country Couple, Thomas Boggs and Lucille Wiley, received a loving cup of great beauty. Our fine musical talent was exhibited by our violinist, Beldon Leonard and his orchestra. As comedians, Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean, represented by Raymond Kemper and Albert Philion, were unexcelled.

"Once in a Blue Moon"

Where is the person not liking a plot of mystery, music and Romance? Unexpected turns, unforeseen trouble and laughter, with just a solemn vein of love begins as the curtain rises in "Once in a Blue Moon." Mrs. Mary Montgomery (Mabel Gilderman) is shocked at the diction of the youngest daughter Leatrice (Alice Casey) a little curly headed girl, full of life and pep.

Silvia (Thelma Bufka) is the eldest daughter, secretly engaged to Bob Harrington. When Bob's fate hangs in the balance she comes forward—not knowing the real truth—and leads him to happiness. George Taylor alias Bob Harrington (Albert Philion) is a young college boy who is in love with Silvia.

Sir Percival Chetwood and M. Rene LeMon are two distinguished visitors, excellently portrayed by Paul Baxter and James Fuson, Betty Morton (Mary Poole), a friend of Silvia is the fiancee's of Billy Maxwell (Raymond Kemper). Suzanne the French maid, (Marie Long) and Hop Sing (Orville Strohl) have some delightful "servant tiffs." Skylark Roams (Maurice Feldman and Mooney (Chester Lovell) the officers of law and Arlene Johnson, the tearful widow add much to the humor of the operetta.

Such was the theme of "Once in a Blue Moon" directed by Miss Winn and Miss Heimbach.

Scene from "Bills"

Sophomore Class Plays

THE Sophomore Class made its debut in the dramatic field when it presented two one-act plays—"Uncle Jimmy" and "Bills" at Battell Auditorium, March 12. A large and appreciative audience attended these performances. They were repeated before the Mast Club and received much commendation which was truly deserved.

The story of "Uncle Jimmy," under the direction of Miss Heimbach, was portrayed in an excellent manner by Warren Curtis, Marion Rodger, Helen May Jernigan, Helen Fry, Marie DeGrote, Donald Hoffman, Alma Hunt and Lloyd Webster.

The characters of the play "Bills" were interpreted by Don Rodgers, Bess Warner, and Paul Culp. They demonstrated that the class of '27 has unusal dramatic talent.

"Thank You!"—Class Play

CLASS OF 1925

The Senior Class Play

HAVE you ever lived in a small town, with its Main Street, its corner drug store, the home of the gossipers, its Gem theater, its Palace hotel, and its "big" church? This formed the picture set before us on May seventh and eigth.

The rector, was presented to us in the personage of Joseph Cogan, who exhibited admirable dramatic ability. Marion Campbell, as his niece, Diane, portrayed her part equally well. On par with these was Albert Philion as young Jamieson, "the millionaire's kid."

Mr. Jamieson, the money king, was ably presented to us by Karl Crofoot. Harry Curtis as Andy, the "reformed rum-hound," Elizabeth Miller in the capacity of Hannah, the "gabby" housekeeper, along with Alice Corporan as Betsy Blodgett, the typical village gossip, created, at the very first, the necessary atmosphere which permeated the entire play.

Berniece Jones as Mrs. Jones, the richest lady in town, Ethel Buysse as her daughter Gladys, the town flirt, and Beldon Leonard as her son Monte, the jealous rival of young Jamieson, filled their parts commendably.

The members of the vestry which included Dr. Cobb (Scott Beauchamp), Mr. Jones (Leonard Fisher), Hiram Swett (Ralph Rupe), Leonard Higginbotham (Vernon Freed), Abner Norton (Orville Strohl), Judge Hasbrough (Paul Baxter), were all excellently and humorously portrayed.

James Nuner as Willetts, the boy sexton, shares honors with Hearld Anthony as Griggs, the "real thing in butlers."

"Come Out of the Kitchen"

Junior Class Play

A LARGE colonial mansion is the setting of this delightful comedy. The Dangerfield quartet, consisting of Olivia (Catherine Ostrom), the sweet little maid of the kitchen, who handled so many desperate situations with ease, Elizabeth (Erna Jacobson), who was always aiding the menancing elements by sudden outbursts but who was really sweet and agreeable, Charles (Eugene Heiser), who caused "oodles" of excitement with his quick wit and cleverness, and Paul (Louis Boorda), the eldest of the four, grave and thoughtful, were all put before us in true dramatic fashion.

Raymond Kemper stood equally with the Dangerfield quartet in his portrayal of Burton Crain, the renter of the Dangerfield mansion. Crain's friend, Thomas Lefferts, (Carl Garmire), shared honors with Solon Tucker (William Claxton), the originator of the clever scheme, around which the plot centered, was ably presented to us.

Arlene Johnson, as Mrs. Faulkner, and Alexina Philion, as her daughter, Cora, added much to the play by the way they portrayed their parts.

Amanda, Olivia's devoted black Mammy, was cleverly put before us by Suzanne Knorr.

(We regret that we were unable to secure scenes from this play)

Society Events

"Pep"

SEVERAL Snake Dances have been given this year by "M. H. S." students, but none was as important as the dance and bonfire Friday evening, November 7, 1924, preceding the South Bend-Mishawaka game. The bonfire was held at the Kamm-Schellinger field. Yells were led by Merritt Farrar. Following this, Ex-Mayor Gaylor, Mr. R. H. Jernegan, and Mr. F. N. Smith contributed speeches.

"M. H. S." certainly extends her sincere gratitude to the business men and student body of the city for their fine, patroitic spirit shown at the South Bend-Mishawaka game Saturday, November 8.

That evening students of South Bend and Mishawaka High Schools held a "Pig-Skin-Hop" in the gymnasium of the South Bend High School. Many attended and we know that all enjoyed themselves because "We Broke the Benders."

The Football Banquet

Members of the "M. H. S." football squad, attended by high school officials and business men, were the honored guests of Mr. Morrison Boorda, of the Mishawaka Clothiers, at a banquet given Wednesday evening, November 26, in the Mishawaka Hotel. Mr. Cauble assumed the duties of toast master, and gave clever introductions. Mr. G. C. Miller, president of Dodge Corporation, was the principal speaker of the evening. He paid the team many compliments. Music was provided by Harold Johnson, Ralph Wenman, Albert Philion, and Raymond Kemper. D. D. Gross was introduced as the yell leader of the Lyons. Mayor D. J. Campbell said that the citizens of Mishawaka were back of all High School athletics and that he could promise Mishawaka one of the best athletic fields in Indiana. Following this Judge R. S. Fieg, who represented the High School Alumni, made an address. He praised the team on its success and clean sportsmanship. R. W. Gaylor responded with many witty stories. Superintendent Emmons gave a very pleasing toast. The other speakers were Coach Steele, Mr. Shake, Captain Neff, Mr. C. Pay, Mr. R. Jernegan and G. A. Maurer. Mr. Boorda, responded with an address telling of his great interest in High School athletics, and promised a banquet to the squad each year.

The Fenwick-Newell Concert

The Fenwick-Newell Concert Company gave a very pleasing entertainment Monday evening, December 15, at 8:00 P. M. in the Battell Auditorium. Fenwick Newell, the tenor pleased every one. The other members of the company were Marguerite Holt, the soprano, Joseph Marks, the violinist, and Rosemond Crawford, the pianist. The small audience appreciated the very excellent music and deplored the fact that more did not take advantage of the opportunity to hear real high class music.

Junior New Years Party

The Junior Class delightfully entertained the Senior Class and the sponsors at a New Years' Eve Dance in the gymnasium of the High School, Wednesday evening December 31. The music was furnished by Bill Fredricks and his "Georgians." Novelties of paper hats and horns were given to all as favors. As the Old Year went and the New Year came in, we are sure at least one resolution of appreciation was made.

G. A. L. Jitney Dance

On Monday, February 23, 1925, the first Jitney Dance was given by the Girls' Athletic League at 4.00 P. M. in the gymnasium. There was dancing until 5:00 P. M. Every one had a good time and we hope for many more Jitney Dances during the coming months.

Senior Tournament Dance

The Senior Class, as a fitting close to the most successful tournament that Mishawaka has ever taken part in, entertained at a Tournament dance Saturday evening. More than one hundred couples were present. Delightful music was furnished by an orchestra from South Bend.

Contest Dance

Following the Typing and Shorthand Contests Saturday, April 18, the classes of Miss Parvis entertained the High School students and their friends at a Contest Dance. George Vinson and Richard Garvin provided a very entertaining act. Between dances, punch was served.

Sophomore Party

The Sophomore class gave a "May Day" dance and party Friday evening, May first. This event was the first event the Sophomores have given and proved a very enjoyable affair. Decorations were of shrubbery and balloons. Good music and refreshments were enjoyed .

Junior Promenade

The Junior Class delightfully entertained the Senior Class at a promenade Saturday evening, June sixth, in the gymnasium. The decorations were in Junior and Senior class colors. Good music and delightful refreshments helped toward making an enjoyable time for every one present. This is the first time the "prom" has ever been held in the new High School and we hope many more delightful affairs will follow.

My Imp's Monologue

"JUST a minute more—not quite 60 seconds. Get your hand on the door, old boy. Pull! Ah! Into the room. Now walk leisurely just as if you didn't care whether she sends you back for a pink slip—and five demerits or not. There goes the bell! Smile sweetly at the clock. Look at the teacher. Take a few fast steps. She will think you're hurrying. Bravo, boy, well done! She thought you really wanted to get to your seat before the bell stopped. Ha! Ha! Ha!

"Really, Carl, you should study your history,—if you don't—Ah—I can't study today, I feel funny. Shuffle your feet—make some noise—are you scart? She can't see your feet. You have a terrible cold. Cough some. That's it The others kids'll catch on. See, I told you so. They're beginning to cough now.

"There goes that 'Sissy.' Stamp your feet as he walks. There's your reward. See, the ones around you think you're real cute!

"See Skinney back there? Throw a paper wad at his book—He's studying too hard. Bam! Crash! There goes his book on the floor! Ha! Ha!

"Say, your pencils needs sharpening. Oh! heavens, can't you walk a trifle heavier? That is the reason you bought those heavy shoes. Atta' boy! all the kids are looking at you and giving you a sly, merry wink. When you go back by Her desk, give those books a shove on to the floor. Wasn't that great? Gee! The noise they made! Don't forget to fall into your seat like a ton of bricks. Atta' boy!

"Well, well, if the Stone Visage didn't go up to consult the teacher on some very important matter! Bah! Well, why don't you put that bent pin on his seat? He'll never feel it! Here he comes; be quick. Pick up that book, dumb, and study. For heaven's sake, iron that guilty smile from your face. Holy Jupiter! wasn't that the swellest "Ouch" you ever listened to?

"Come on, boy, get in the fun. Chew up that paper. You have a rubber band in your pocket. Get busy or they'll think you are a stranger and not an "M. H. S." senior.

"Wham! Slam! Ha! Ha! That was a good one. "Ouch," he hit you back. Get up and choke him! Study. She's watching you.

"Did you know that "Napoleon the Second" was over there third row from the windows? That's it. Chew that wad hard. Put it in your little "Messenger."

"Great Guns! he saw it coming and dodged it! It's goin' straight toward the teacher's bent head. Crack! I heard it land way over there! Ha! Ha!

"She see's you. Here comes a little angel in the form of a blue slip! What's the figure in the lower left-hand corner? Two of 'em, by gosh. Laugh it off, boy, for all in the study hall have their eyes on you! Laugh! you idot, at least they mustn't know you have a yellow streak. Disgusted? Well, I'll say I am, and with you too. Can't even get 16 without lookin' like a scared bunny.

"Thank heavens; there goes the bell. I've done my day's labor. Guess I'll go to sleep."

This, dear readers, is a true account of the reason I had to take all of the final examinations.

Thelma Bufka.

"The Sissy"

THE long, gray car swung up the campus drive and stopped in front of the Main buliding. Out of it stepped a sober faced lad of about seventeen years. His red head and well built body showed a strong likeness to the middle-aged man who drove the car and whose face showed a stern and serious mind.

The boy started up the broad stone steps, but suddenly, he turned and spoke. "Aw, Dad, you can't really mean it! The fellows will all think I'm a molly-coddle, here."

"Well, son," spoke the man, "Let's try it and see. You'll remember your promise, won't you? It's only for a short time. Good-bye."

Two minutes had passed: the boy stood and watched the car disappear in the distance; then slowly he turned, plodded up the steps, saying one word, "Damn!"

The new boy was a "Sissy." The fellows were thoroughly convinced of it by now. Had he not twice refused to join in a game of base ball and many more times refused to even venture on their beloved football field?

"There's something funny about him," spoke up one of the older boys. "Do you notice the hurt expression he puts on when we say anything about athletics of any kind? He acts as if it hurts him to speak to us."

"Well, if he's that kind, we'll let him go," said one of the other boys who was the half-back of the "Varsity."

"Say, fellows, the coach issues football equipment in three days and maybe our friend will come out of his shell then."

The days wore on for the "Sissy," who merely went to his classes, meals and then back to his room. His quiet reserve held all the boys aloof.

At first, the football season came on slowly, at least for those who expected and waited for it. Very soon it would be in full swing in the major colleges. Soon, the first game was a week off. Spirits were high on and about the campus. Every normal blooded youth in the school was out watching practice every night.

But what of the "Sissy"? From his window, he watched the coach whip what little material he had into shape for the coming skirmish. In his eyes there was a wistful look.

"I'll just have to do it," he said. Indecision seemed to throw him into a panic. Then, all at once, a determined look came into his eyes again. "Yes, I'll do it," he muttered again and gritted his teeth. He grabbed up his cap and started out of the room. Just as the coach was putting the squad through a few calisthenics, who should walk on the field but the "Sissy." He went up to the coach with a set jaw and said, "Have you room for any more scrubs or is it too late to try out for the team?"

The coach looked him over from head to foot, stroked his jaw, turned to the assistant coach and winked. Then, he turned back to the "Sissy" and said, "Well there's a pretty stiff fight up between two of last year's regulars over left half. You may be able to break in." Again he turned to the assistant coach, "Tad, fix this chap up with some football togs and put him through some calisthenics."

Four tedious nights of practice followed. The "Sissy" crammed his head with all the new signals in a surprisingly short time. Strange to say, the coach was beginning to study the red headed boy with a more serious attention.

The "Sissy" was playing left half on the second team as the two coaches strode up and down the field, watching the squad go through the last signal practice before the game. Again the coach's eyes fell upon him.

"He's got the build, Tad. I'm giving him his chance tonight."

Half an hour later, the seconds were pitted against the "Varsity" for a light scrimmage. The coach picked ten men from the scrubs and with a nod to the "Sissy" said, "Red, take left half and let's see you go."

It was the first team's ball. Steadily they trampled over the scrubs and drove them down the field. At last came the "Sissy's" chance. One half on a "cross-buck" off-tackle fumbled the ball and it bounded crazily forward almost into "Sissy's" hands. Something that had been held back in him seemed to break loose. A broad smile, which seemed to say, "TRY AND STOP ME!," spread over his face. He was actually in open field. A graceful sidestep here, a cultured stiff arm there, a long sweeping run until, with a half back upon him, he crossed the goal line.

"Well," thought he, "it was just as simple as before." In a blur, he saw the coach and all his team mates running toward him.

"For Christmas sake! boy, where have you played football like that before you come here?" the astonished and overjoyed coach cried.

The "Sissy" blushed and in a weak voice said, "Left half with Downing "Prep" for four years."

"You're not Kirby of all "Prep" honors, are you?"

"That's me," said the "Sissy" with no attempt at bravado.

"Well," asked the coach. " Why, in heavens name, haven't you told us before this?"

"It's this way," said the "Sissy", "About six months ago, I had an accident with Dad's car and, as a punishment, he told me I would have to abstain from all athletics for one year, so, I came here to school preparing to drudge my way through one year without any." He didn't tell them that he had received no word from his father releasing him from his promise.

The names of the players who were to dress for the next day's game were read and the "Sissy's" was third on the list.

The sun shown bleak on a field packed solid by a morning's light shower. The stands were filled with an enthusiastic, yelling crowd.

Suddenly the shrill staccato referee's whistle cut the air. "There he goes, the rascal," breathed the gray haired middle-aged man whose hair could have once been red. "I might have known he couldn't hold out."

The half ended with a score 0 to 0. The coach had the team in the dressing room. "You can use Red this half," was the courage he gave them before they again went on the field.

The two teams seesawed up and down the field, and neither one was able to gain any grounds. The "Sissy" received the kick-off and ran twenty yards before he was tackled. Then the quarter called Red's signal after two attempts to gain had failed.

It was the third down and ten yards to go. The "Sissy" caught the ball, tucked it under his arm, made a wide end run and squirmed, hipped and side stepped his way to a touchdown and victory for his team.

A gray haired man on the bleachers smiled even as a tear glistened in his eye. "I knew the rascal could never resist the game," he muttered to himself. Perhaps he had played the game once himself, under similar circumstances.

After the game, the team walked slowly off the field. At the gate the "Sissy" met his father.

"It's all right, son, and I'm very proud of you." Then his face grew stern as he said. "But as a punishment, you will have to dine with me tonight."

"With pleasure, Dad," he said in a choked voice. There were tears in the "Sissy's" eyes.

Constitution Contest

For the first time, Mishawaka High School was represented in the Oratorical Contest on "The Constitution." There were very few contestants from the school this year. It is to be hoped that many will enter next year. Maurice Feldman, '25, represented us in the district meeting at South Bend and was awarded Second Place.

1925 Commercial Contest

Mishawaka, scoring 65 points out of the total 162, won the second consecutive district contest Saturday, April 18, and kept the district pennant in our school. LaPorte was a close second with 50 points, and Ligonier edged out 18 points, while Bristol made 12, South Bend, 6, and Bremen, 3 points.

The following individuals placed for "M. H. S."

Novice Typewriting—2nd place, Bertha Robbins.

Amateur Typewriting—1sts place, Arlene Johnson; 3rd place, Doris Battershaw.

Advanced Shorthand—1st place, Agnes Burggraf; 2nd place, Nellie Simper.

Penmanship—2nd place, Louise Kelley; 3rd place, Laura Stout.

Bookkeeping—1st place, Leona Forstbauer.

Howard Moore and Marian Kelley helped in landing second team honors in the novice typewriting, and the same two with Nannie Blandford won second team place in beginning shorthand. Dorothy Vallance placed fourth in advanced shorthand; Hazel Ives, sixth in amateur typewriting; Nellie Simper sixth in penmanship; and Bessie Killefer and Treva Reed, seventh and eighth respectively in bookkeeping.

Acknowledgment

The Class of 1925 has tried to make this "Miskodeed" a truly Mishawaka book. Through the advise and encouragement of Mr. Boorda, the Mishawaka Clothier, the advertising space was sold to Mishawaka merchants, only. The citizens of our community showed their loyality to the school by increasing their advertising space and thereby aided the class in its ambition. To these men the Class extends its vote of gratitude.
